FOREWORD

The Editorial Board of Occidentalia for 1958 takes pleasure in presenting the thirty-second volume of your Year Book in which we have endeavoured to cover the main events on campus during the year. This book is devoted not just to the graduating class but to the University as a whole. We hope that it will always be a reminder of your years at Western.

To those students who are spending their last year on Western's campus we dedicate this book and give them our sincerest best wishes for the future.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

G. EDWARD HALL, M.D., Ph.D., D.Sc.
President and Vice-Chancellor of the University of Western Ontario

THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO
LONDON, CANADA

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

The members of the graduating classes of 1958 have a unique distinction. It was in 1878 that the University was established - 80 years ago - to "constitute a seat of learning to which the young men of the West would naturally incline". The University, being situated in the then "Canada West", was named the Western University of London.

The first Convocation, for two students, was held in May 1883 - 75 years ago - at which time Robert Franklin Sutherland received the degree of Bachelor of Arts and William Roche the degree of Doctor of Medicine. Mr. Sutherland became Speaker of the House of Commons and later justice of the Surrogate Court of Ontario. Dr. Roche became Minister of the Interior in the Federal Government, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission of Canada and later Chancellor of the University.

To you, then, the dates 1878, 1883 and 1958 should have a special meaning. May your records of service in the years to come rival those of our first graduates.

At this time I extend congratulations and best wishes to you. Please remember that education is a continuing process - it is a journey not a destination.

A GROWING CAMPUS

NEW BUILDINGS

This year the University of Western Ontario is undergoing a major building program. the largest since the war. The Richard Ivey School of Business Administration was dedicated in the fall and the new Geology Building on the north-east corner of the campus is due for completion this spring or early summer. Many new buildings are planned and one of these, the Engineering Building (above), is already started. Middlesex College (below) and a new men's residence will be under way within the next year. Western will not be a small university for very much longer.

THE ADMIN

Frank Stiling, Ph.D.
Dean of University College

Ronald A. Allen, M.A., Ph.D.
Dean of Graduate Studies and University Vice-President

F. W. P. Jones, B.A.
Dean of the School of Business Administration

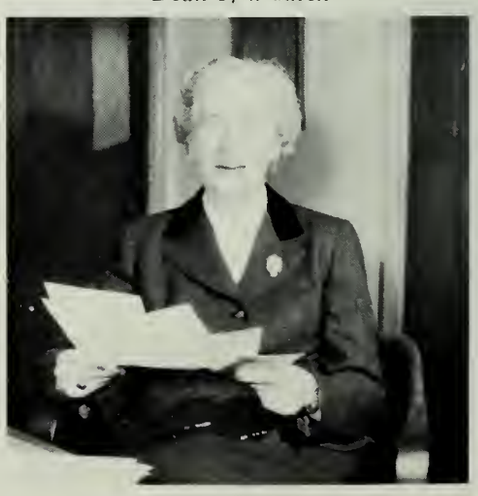
Any contact with the administrative members of the university at the level of student government is sufficient to inspire confidence in the student that they are primarily concerned with the interests of the student body.

Intervention on their part is, of course, necessary on occasion. It is justified when the actions of the students are detrimental to their own interests and welfare.

Leola E. Neal, Ph.D.
Dean of Women



J. B. Collip
D.Sc., M.D., LL.D., F.R.C.P., F.R.S.
Dean of the School of Medicine

ISTRATION

T. L. Hoskins, M.A.
Dean of Men

Students, because of the brevity of their university careers, have a tendency to be shortsighted, especially in regard to plans which will have long range effects. It is thus the duty of members of the administration, by virtue of their maturity and experience, to act as a tempering force, by granting us the advantage of their long range vision, should the need for it arise.

Excerpts From The Valedictory Address

I have been charged with giving a valedictory. That means that I must find some way for us to say farewell to Western, and to the past four years — and hail to the great wide world and to the next four or five decades.

These four years — or three for some of us — have been momentous for each one of us personally, for Western and for our country. We, as students, have gained knowledge from books, from friends, from professors and from life. We have cheered the Mustangs on to victory — and consoled ourselves over their losses. We have stood in the rain to watch inter-faculty football on the back campus, and we have watched swim meets in the humidity of Spencer Pool. We have searched for apartments and waited for buses — and some of us have waited for apartments and searched for buses. We have seen the advent of Bermuda shorts and the knee sock. We have seen four Frosh Hops, three editions of Oxy, two championship basketball teams, four productions of Patches, and many, many movies. We have listened to innumerable lectures — and skipped considerably fewer; drunk hundreds of cups of coffee, and some of us have helped repay the university's debt to Mr. Labatt. We have sauntered down the drive on crisp autumn afternoons and hurried across the bridge on wet wintry mornings. We have laughed and we have wept and we have loved almost every minute of it. We have been a privileged group these past four years — and I doubt that many of us would make any changes if we had them to re-live.

We have lived through some turbulent times — and stood, with Mr. Dulles, on the brink. None of us can say what lies in wait for us as we leave the world of the scholar and venture into that of the wage earner. But whether the future is good or bad, fair or unfair, satisfying or disillusioning, each one of us has something very good to look back on and remember. We or our parents, and in part, the government, have paid for our years at Western. But we have not yet, if I may use yet another cliché, entirely discharged our obligations to our university and to society.

We are supposedly educated for living — not just for earning a living. Although university students are notorious for being cynics, I hope there are a few idealists among us. This materialistic world needs them. We as students have learned something of the mistakes man has made throughout his history — and we must do our bit, however small, to see that he does not make them again. We have learned to know and appreciate past and contemporary culture, that we may be keener judges of what is bad, and can thus promote the good and discourage the bad.

We have worked in the light of dedicated men and women who are devoting their lives to imparting knowledge. They have given us the framework on which to build better lives. We must not stop working the moment we have our diplomas in our hands.

We are leaving the world of the campus. The larger world that has been bequeathed to us is a troubled one. Man has made tremendous strides in conquering the unknown, but he has also vastly increased his ability to destroy himself and his civilization. In the past forty years our fathers and grandfathers have fought twice that we might live on. Statesmen are trying right now to maintain the precarious peace.

None of us is likely to work any miracles, but with some good fortune our influence in the small world in which we live and work will be good. And this may spread, and perhaps help to counteract the unpleasantness that is so much with us today.

Let's be realists — if I may use some more clichés — this world is not a bed of roses — but neither is it the proverbial vale of tears. The opportunity is ours in some small way to make it better than it is at present.

Our university has given us the tools with which to work. Let us use them wisely and well — so that our children may know the delights of life in a world free from fear and hatred. Perhaps if we are very fortunate, and if fate deals well with us, the world we bequeath to them will be better for our having been a part of it. Let us hope so.

JOAN DAVIDSON.

SENIOR INTER

The Yates Trophy, symbolic of victory, has returned to the University of Western Ontario campus. After three years of intercollegiate competition, the football team has again reached their final goal. As in all competition, effort is the supreme theme in attaining the final achievement, whether it be on a field of play, or in the field of everyday living. Athletics at Western, of which football is only a small part, teach the practical application of the Art of Living with fellow men. Athletics, in performing such a function, takes second place to the academic issue in the educational process.

With the excellent facilities available to all students here at the University of Western Ontario, it is to be hoped that more and more students will take advantage of the opportunity to compete in athletics, either in the intramural or the intercollegiate level. At the present time only about 43 per cent of the general student body are availing themselves of these privileges, privileges which play a great part in helping to form a well-rounded university education.

If the students now participating in the various levels of athletics typify the alert mind and physically fit body, let's have more! This is the finished educated specimen our country needs.

U.W.O. 15; U. of T. 0

Before 11,000 homecoming fans in Little Stadium, the Mustangs moved a notch closer to winning the Yates Cup Championship by defeating the University of Toronto Blues 15-0.

Bill Britton proved to be the spark of the team by scoring both Western touchdowns and picking up over 135 yards along the ground in 24 carries.

The two Mustang quarterbacks, Art Turner and Frank Cosentino, completed three passes in nine attempts for a total of 22 yards. Cosentino made one of those completions.

Toronto proved to be superior in the air through quarterbacks Larry Joynt and Brian Aston by completing 11 in 19 attempts for a total of 92 yards.

Western's first touchdown came early in the first quarter, where, from midfield on three successive downs, Bill Britton and Dale Creighton moved the pigskin to the Varsity 20. Lionel Conacher and Bob Miller took the ball to the 5 and on the next play Britton crashed over. It was the hard running attack of the Mustangs that gave the balance of power to the Mustangs.

Soon after the touchdown, Neil Desborough came up with the longest gain of the game when he went 30 yards around right end after taking a pitchout from Turner. The run brought the play to the Varsity 28, where Western was unable to gain a first down. Turner kicked to Peter Mark in the end zone and Western led 8-0.

Early in the third quarter Creighton, Britton and Bob Miller moved the ball into Toronto territory and the Mustangs had a first down on the Blues' 2-yard line. On the next play Britton crashed over for his second major, but this time Casanova's convert was blocked.

This exciting game ended with Varsity on the Western 5-yard line with a first down.

U.W.O. 34; U. of T. 20

Lionel Conacher showed himself as a "star" in Toronto's Bloor Street stadium before 15,000 semi-frozen fans. Conacher, along with Britton and Creighton, teamed with a brilliant quarterbacking display by sophomore Frank Cosentino to highlight an outstanding offensive team effort.

Western scored its first touchdown soon after the start of the game when Ted Roman crashed through the Toronto line to block a kick by Dick Risk. Tackle Jack Coups kicked the loose ball into the end zone and fell on it for a touchdown, giving Western a 6-1 lead.

Varsity's Tim Reid and Steve Chisholm piled up yardage on five consecutive first downs, with Reid finally getting a major, making it 7-6 for Varsity.

In the second quarter, Cosentino threw a sensational 50-yard touchdown pass to Desborough that was converted by a pass to Doug MacKenzie. The half came to an end with Western ahead 14-7.

In the third quarter Western started off fast from their own 17 and made a concerted drive down the field with Desborough, Britton and Creighton picking up six first downs to bring the ball to the Toronto 2. Miller then took a wide pitchout and raced around right end for a touchdown. The Blues moved into Mustang territory when Dave Creswell took a Turner punt and ran to the 29. Reid and Chisholm cracked over for the touchdown and Western's margin was cut to 6 points.

On the kickoff Loftus and Desborough again pulled their fancy fake and this time Loftus went to the Western 50. Conacher and Creighton ran the ball and ran for the touchdown.

Varsity quarterback Aston threw a perfect pass to Creswell for a touchdown to make the score 27-20 for Western. Western came right back, with Britton carrying on six consecutive plays and crashed over to end the game in a score of 34-20.

U.W.O. 34; QUEEN'S 6

Before a Thanksgiving week-end crowd of 7,000 the Mustangs allowed the Queen's Gaels to take an early 6-point lead. With a first down on the Western 39-yard line, and two Western penalties, a Campbell to Fedor pass set the stage for a short touchdown run by fullback Karl Quinn. It was not converted. Towards the end of the quarter, a 20-yard pass from Turner to Girvin brought the play to the Queen's 7, and two plays after the start of the second quarter, Creighton crashed over and Mustangs led for the first time, 7-6.

In the second quarter, Campbell tried to bring his team back to life by taking to the air, but interceptions by Casanova, who played a solid game at defensive halfback, and by Ed Meads put an end to the threat. Mustangs took over and when a Turner punt was fumbled by Ron Young, Britton picked it up and carried to the Queen's 8, where Turner passed to Creighton for a converted touchdown. Score 14 to 6.

On the return of the kickoff after the touchdown, Ron Stewart brought the crowd to its feet with a sensational 55-yard runback to the Western 46, where Lionel Conacher saved the day by stopping Stewart with a fine tackle.

Soon after the start of the third quarter, Desborough got behind the Gaels' pass defenders and took a perfect strike from Turner for a touchdown. This put the Mustangs ahead by 20-6. Another Turner pass to Shepherd scored a thrilling touchdown that was converted by Casanova to give the purple and white a lead of 27-6.

In the fourth quarter, Frank Cosentino took over the reins as quarterback, and completed a 48-yard pass to Langhorne, and five plays later the ball was on the two-yard line. On the next play Creighton smashed over for his third touchdown. Casanova converted, to end the game 34-6.

U.W.O. 21; QUEEN'S 8

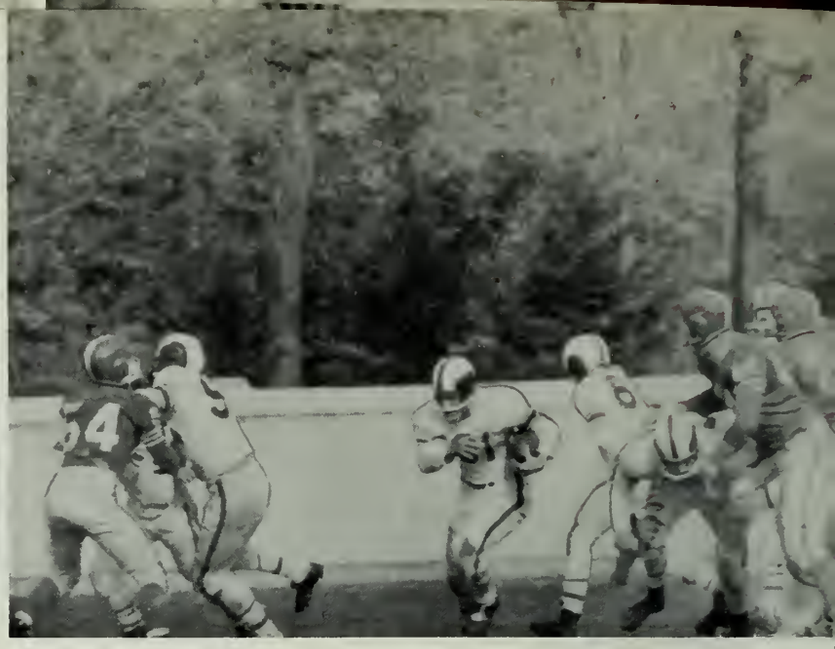
An inspired Queen's team, led by their great halfback Ron Stewart, pushed the Mustangs hard before yielding two touchdowns in the third quarter. Statistically, Western's edge was somewhat less than the score indicated. The Mustangs picked up 26 first downs to the Gaels' 20; however, in total yardage the men of Metras picked up only three more yards than the tri-colour, 341-338. Queen's rookie quarterbacks, McAleese and Richards, threw 17 passes, completing 7, while Turner and Cosentino were successful on 5 out of 9 attempts.

The Mustangs struck first early in the second quarter. The Mustangs' two hard-running fullbacks, Dale Creighton and Lionel Conacher, moved the ball to the Queen's 25. From there Cosentino faked beautifully and rolled out and threw to Desborough, who was loose deep in the end zone. Casanova converted minutes later. Frank Loftus conceded a point on Jocko Thompson's long punt from the Mustang 40. Halftime score was U.W.O. 7; Queen's 1.

Early in the third quarter the Mustangs' split-attack began to click as the Queen's line began to weaken. Britton and Creighton, from their own 52, ran to the Queen's 8 on five successive downs. From the 8, Britton raced around left end for a touchdown, which Casanova converted to give the Mustangs a 14-1 lead.

Soon after, a Queen's fumble and a 15-yard penalty to Queen's gave Conacher a chance to score another touchdown, converted by Casanova, to end the third quarter 21 to 1.

A fourth quarter saw Richards from Queen's throw a long touchdown pass to McAleese that was converted to end the game with a score of 21-8.



U.W.O. 26; McGILL 7

Led by the running of Dale Creighton, Bill Britton and Neil Desborough; the brilliant quarterbacking of Art Turner, and a hard blocking and tackling line, Western won the opening game of the season.

Early in the game, Jan Sandzelius of McGill kicked a single from the Mustang 30-yard line. From the McGill 43-yard line, Britton and Creighton moved the ball to the 11. A fumble caused Casanova to kick a perfect 21-yard field goal. Score at the first half 3 to 1 for Western.

Now the power running of Creighton and Britton started to have its toll on the weakened Redmen's front wall. The two former London high school aces plowed the ball 52 yards in eight plays, with Creighton crashing over from the 4-yard line with the first touchdown of the game. Casanova's convert was good.

At the end of the quarter Turner completed a 12-yard pass to Roger Stewart. Creighton picked up 15 yards on a run through centre, and on the first play of the last quarter. Turner lateralled to Stewart for a touchdown. The convert by Casanova was good, and the Mustangs led 17-1.

Carr, the former Columbia passer, leashed a high lofting pass that sailed over the head of Western defensive back Bob Miller into the arms of Bennett, who carried the ball for a touchdown. The play covered 75 yards in all, and the score read 17-7.

Later in the quarter an interception by Ed Meads, a 15-yard gain by Desborough and an 11-yard smash by Creighton brought play to the Redmen one-yard line, where Britton carried the ball over, giving the Mustangs a lead of 24-7.

On the second play after the kickoff, Carr backed into his own end zone to pass, where ends Morgan, Clark and Pete Zarry broke through to score a safety touch to give the game the final score of 26-7.

U.W.O. 8; McGILL 1

McGill gave it everything they had, and the game proved to be the most exciting and hard fought game of the season, but in spite of the tremendous effort put forth by Larry Sullivan's Redmen, it still wasn't enough to stop the purple and white machine.

In a game played under the most difficult conditions, it snowed four inches in better than two hours of play, the wind reached almost gale force and the temperature hovered near the freezing mark. The purple and white team rolled up 255 yards along the ground compared to the 80 yards for McGill. Picking up all but 25 of the total ground yardage were the fullbacks Dale Creighton and Billy Britton.

The Mustangs scored all their points in the first quarter, the first counted when an early punt by Art Turner was fumbled by Carl Hanson and recovered for Western by Tom White on his own 52. In the next series of plays, Creighton, Britton, Miller and Desborough carried to the McGill 26, from where quarterback Turner kicked deep in the end zone for a single point.

Late in the first quarter, tackle John Humphrey broke through the McGill line to block a Sandzelius punt, and when the Redmen again kicked after recovering the ball, Frank Loftus ran it to the Western 46.

From there Creighton and Britton carried the ball on 12 successive plays, with Britton finally crashing over from the one-yard line for a touchdown. Willie Casanova, who rarely missed a convert all year, split the uprights to give Western an 8-0 lead as the quarter came to an end.

In the third quarter, Redmen quarterback Dick Carr took to the air to try to bring his club back in the game. Throwing with the wind, he tossed the ball to halfbacks Hansen and Bulchak to set up a kick by Sandzelius, which sailed into the Western end zone for a single point. The game ended on this score of 8 to 1.

COLT FOOTBALL

For the first time in campus history, the Colts bowed to a powerful Ryerson Tech team. The purple and white intermediates missed early scoring opportunities and later penalties, fumbles and intercepted passes paved the way for the Ryerson victory of 12-0.

The following week, the team came back to their winning ways of bygone years, scoring three touchdowns during the second half to hand Queen's their second straight setback, 34-13. Second year veteran Gerry Dignan led the way, scoring two of the second-half counters.

Varsity Blues moved into first place in the Intercollegiate Intermediate race with a 22-20 comeback victory over the Colts. Eli Drakich, Bob Pierson and John Sloan scored the majors for Western, and barely missed a victory in a close fought battle.

The following week, the Colts again met defeat at the hands of the Baby Blues. Four unconverted touchdowns and a single made up the 25-7 victory for the Blues. Western's lone marker came from Eli Drakich in the second quarter.

Bob Grace, playing his finest game since coming to Western, passed for three touchdowns to lead the Colts to a 34-22 victory over the Queen's Comets. Once again Eli Drakich counted a major for the purple and white, while team-mates Callaghan, Miller and Fullerton scored the remaining touchdowns.

Western's Colts ended the season in second place in the Intermediate race with a 21-7 triumph over the Ryerson Rams. The Baby Blues took the crown from Western for the league championship. Western's six points gave them second spot, two points over Queen's, who finished in third place.

INTERCOLLEGIATE GOLF

For the third consecutive year, Western's golf team captured the intercollegiate golf championship, played at the scenic Cataraqui Club in Kingston. The team's total for the 144 holes was 638. This was 6 strokes above the record which was established by a Western quartet in 1956, and one stroke above last year's winning total. Leading the Western scoring was Bob Louch, a junior from St. Marys. He and Norm Thompson (Queen's) shared low individual honours with 155's. Next were Gerry Knechtel, Kelvin Bellis and Jamie Henderson with scores of 158, 162 and 163, respectively. Bob and Jamie will both be back to bolster next year's defending team.

Following Western were Queen's (647), Toronto (662), McGill (673), University of Montreal (689), Laval (700) and Assumption (710).

INTERCOLLEGIATE SOCCER

The 1957 soccer season ended with the Seniors in the cellar and the Intermediates in third place. A slow start, and subsequent injuries, hampered what might otherwise have been a better season.

The Senior team was slow to settle down and there was a noticeable lack of team play. However, as the season progressed, the team played more together and generally showed considerable improvement.

Six new players joined the team — Dave Smith, Bill Frewen and Jo Weynerowski in the forward line; Larry McGill and Mike Leenders on defence, and finally Bud Jackson in goal.

The Intermediate team had a better season, finishing with five draws and two losses. One draw against always strong Toronto deserves particular mention, especially since Western fielded only ten men. Coach Reidy commented that although the Intermediates lost one or two of their better players to the Senior team, they nevertheless could have won some of their games had they not been content to relax after establishing the lead.

Newcomers to the team were Meindert Wolff, Igor Saika-Voivod, Alex Gerenser, Andrew Pressburger, Ted Jongerius, Gunars Liepins, Jo Vadas and Ken Pearson.

Professor Reidy and assistant Bill Rainey must be congratulated for their continual patience and efforts in coaching. Since Bill may be leaving U.W.O. this spring, a special word of thanks must be extended to him. He has helped coach for the past three seasons and will be sincerely missed. With most of the members of this year's squad returning in 1958, the coaches look forward to a more successful season next year.

TRACK TEAM

Despite outstanding performances by George Shepherd and Ross McFarlane, Western's Intercollegiate track team finished third in this year's intercollegiate track meet at Toronto.

McFarlane copped top honours in the senior 100 yard dash with a time of 10.4 seconds, while Shepherd placed first in the senior 120 yard high hurdles in a time of 15.8 seconds.

Other outstanding performances turned in by Mustang trackmen included second place by Mac McMartin in the senior mile, Bob McEachran in the senior 880, and a third finish by Bob Miller in the senior shotput.

Although Toronto Varsity Blues won top honours this year, Western felt they had a very successful season.

HARRIER TEAM

In the fall, the U.W.O. harrier team competed in several competitions, and did fairly well considering the circumstances. Injuries played havoc with the team from Thanksgiving on. The quantity was there this year, and now it is necessary to improve the quality. Coach Rich Hobbs, former captain of the team, kept the two teams in striking distance at the meets in Toronto, Guelph and Hamilton.

Intermediate teams were defeated at the Intercollegiate Meet held at the University. Co-captains Jack McIntosh and Malcom McMartin consistently led the team through the year, and hope for better things next year, despite the retirement of Earle Phillips and themselves.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SKI TEAM

This year the ski team started a grass roots program to get to the top of the intercollegiate ski group. For several years teams have travelled to Quebec, but have always done poorly. This year, however, the team stayed in its own backyard to gain experience. Not a week-end was missed from the first of January until the third week in February when the ski meets in Ontario ended. This training will produce results in future years.

An inter-college meet was held at Flesherton. where Western swept the first four places in each event. The other teams, O.A.V.C.. Ryerson. and Toronto, followed in that order.

With almost three months of snow on campus, the team, who are all returning next year. plans to start training in early November. With the addition of further members and the improved calibre of skiing now being shown, the team will next year venture to Quebec to try and slay the giants of the skiing world.

The team placed in every meet they entered.

Champion Medley Relay Team

Toronto, with last year's championship team intact and greatly strengthened by Yorzyk, Stipetic, Walbank, Armstrong and Unger, were the odds-on favourites to repeat in the Intercollegiates. This they did, although Western battled them right down to the final relay. Bill Yorzyk of Toronto won the 200 yard Butterfly and the 440 yard freestyle, and Cameron Grout of McGill the 50 and the 100 yard freestyles to emerge the only two double winners.

Western's Medley Relay team of Shortreed, Bell, Fowler and Thompson posted an easy win in the first event, and Denes Szvetko in the 220 yard freestyle and Peter Bell in the 200 yard Breast Stroke were Western's other winners. All told, nineteen records, including Canadian, Intercollegiate and pool records were shattered in the best display of swimming and diving in Intercollegiate history.

Denes Szvetko of London — Freestyler

Western's greatest sprinter, Denes came to Canada from Hungary. He is the Intercollegiate 220 champion, holds a variety of Western freestyle records.

Freestyle Relay Team of Hauch, Thompson. Fowler and Szvetko

After an intensive eight-week weight training program, the Mustang swimmers entered the pool to prepare for their toughest dual meet schedule.

The schedule began with Western's first pre-Christmas meet. The squad journeyed to Amherst, Massachusetts, where Denes Szvetko nipped Hank Gideonese by an arm length in the final leg of the freestyle relay to provide Western with a slim margin of victory. Six Western team records were broken.

The New Year opened with Western hosts to the Ontario All Stars. The Mustang Medley Relay team of Shortreed, Bell, Fowler and Jeffery established its first Canadian record with a time of 4:11.1. Two pool records and five team records fell in an afternoon filled with excellent performances.

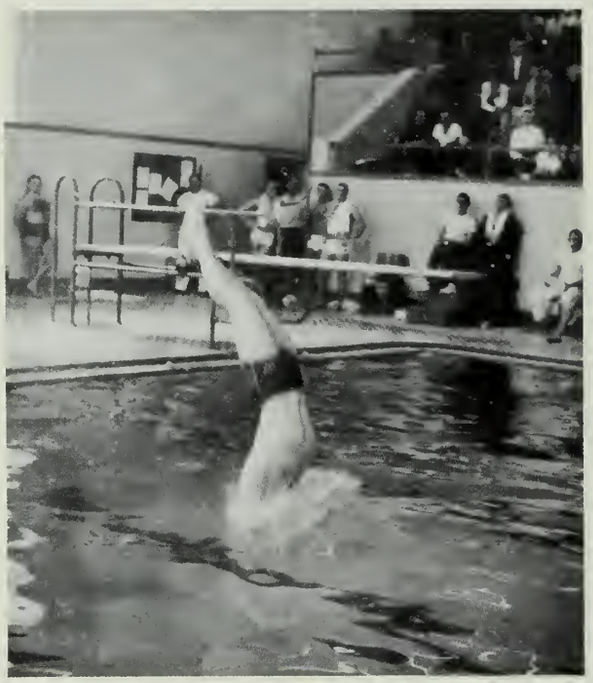
A week later, Denes Szvetko set a new Canadian Collegiate 100 yard Freestyle record against Albion as he sped the four lengths in 52.8. The Mustangs won eight of the ten events.

With Toronto and Western both represented by the strongest teams in Intercollegiate history, their dual meet at Hart House promised to be a thriller, and it lived up to all expectations. Toronto were without the services of the Olympic and World Record Holder, Bill Yorzyk, and in the end this was the margin of Western's victory. The two teams battled through nine events on even terms, with Bill Hauch getting an important first in the 50 yard freestyle. After the 440, Toronto led by 39-31. Western required a first and a third in the breast stroke and a win in the final relay to take the Meet. Peter Bell and Ron Billings provided the first, and in a thrill-packed freestyle relay, Hauch, Thompson. Fowler and Szvetko squeezed out the latter.

Previously undefeated, Brockport bowed to the Mustang swimmers led by Pete Bell, who broke his own Canadian 200 yard breast stroke record in a time of 2:29.1. Losing only one event, the 200 yard backstroke, Western coasted to a 68-18 victory.

Five records were smashed when Bowling Green visited Thames Hall to give Western their first defeat of the season, 49-37. With a time of 4:03.3, Western's Medley Relay team set both a Canadian and Canadian College record. Peter Bell and Peter Fowler won the 200 yard breast stroke and 200 yard butterfly, respectively, with Bell again lowering his Canadian and College record to 2:26.8. At the final event, the 400 yard freestyle relay, Western needed a first to win the meet. The U.W.O. quartet had to settle for second place against a strong Bowling Green relay, but even so, their time of 3:41.0 broke the existing Canadian College record.

Western went on to Buffalo to gain their sixth dual meet victory 51-33. Bill Hauch and Peter Fowler starred in this meet, each winning two events. Ron Billings and Ray McKerlie came through with their first wins of the season.



Diving is an important aspect of every meet

With the Intercollegiates only a week away, Western travelled to Niagara to post another win. Szvetko, Billings, McKerlie and Fowler all won their events, and Bell's exhibition time of 2:23.0 for the 200 yard breast stroke was an unclaimed Canadian short course record.

Western closed the season in Ann Arbor against a powerful Michigan squad. Although they bowed to a 57-29 loss, the Mustangs posted two firsts — Szvetko came up with the winning time in the 100 yard Freestyle, and the Freestyle Relay Team of Girvin, Thompson, Fowler and Szvetko took the final event. Peter Bell gave the U.S. record holder, Cy Hopkins, a close race in the 200 yard breast stroke. This closed out the most successful season in Western swimming history.

During the season, the Mustangs set two Canadian records, four Intercollegiate records, three pool records and nine team records.

The only record left standing from previous years is Bob Easun's 4:57.6 in the 440 yard Freestyle set in 1953.

SENIOR INTERCOLLEGIATE WRESTLING

This past year was a most successful one for the Senior and Intermediate squads, as both won their respective intercollegiate titles. The University of Western Michigan was the first opponent of this year at a dual meet here at Thames Hall. Western won this meet 19-11 with Mustang pins posted by Catton and Joy. Reynolds, Neilson and Chantler each picked up team points by decision. Western Michigan points were posted in the 137 pound class when Altimua pinned Roy; in the 157 pound class when Downie decisioned Rae Smith, and in the 177 pound class when Olmstead decisioned Ray Johnson.

The Toronto meet proved to be another victory for the Mustang wrestlers. Western won the senior event 24-11 with pins going to Reynolds, Joy and Neilson. Decisions were won by Smith, Johnson and Chantler. Since their weights were defaulted to U. of T., the Colts went down to defeat 14-20. Western wins were posted by Clapperton, a pin, Laird, Feick and Bailey.

At O.A.V.C. the Western wrestlers walked away with both the Senior and Intermediate events. The Mustangs won 26-13 with pins going to Reynolds. Clapperton. Joy and Neilson. Decisions were won by Smith and Johnson. The Intermediates picked up 21 points to O.A.V.C.'s 15 for another victory. Western pins went to Catton, Barnum and Feick. Decisions were won by Laird and Pearson.

A visiting University of Buffalo team proved to be too strong for the Mustangs and won by a score of 18-12. Western wins went to Reynolds, Joy and Neilson. "Tiger" Chantler fought to a draw in the heavyweight class.

Western suffered another loss at the hands of the visiting U.S. team from Findlay College. The final score read 21-14 in favour of Findlay. John Chantler picked up the only Western pin of the day, while Laird. Neilson and Johnson won their bouts by decisions. Findlay picked up 5 victories, 3 of them by pins.

The always strong Bowling Green State Oilers also walked off with a decisive score in their favour, 26-24. Don Neilson and Ray Johnson posted the only Western victories of the day as they decisioned their men. Bowling Green State picked up 6 victories through the course of the afternoon. Three of these were by fast pins and the balance were won by decisive margins.

Both Western squads proved their intercollegiate prowess by walking off with the Senior and Intermediate crowns. The Senior Mustangs picked up 6 individual championships, the first time in Intercollegiate history. These individual championships went to Reg Reynolds at 123 pounds, Jim Clapperton, a freshman, at 130 pounds, and Jim Joy at 137 pounds for the second straight year. Bill Salter picked up an individual championship at 157 pounds while fighting the last bout with a broken hand. Don Neilson, who was runner-up as best wrestler at the meet, picked up a championship in the 167 pound class with 2 pins and a decision. Captain Ray Johnson, at 177 pounds, initiated a spectacular takedown in the last 30 seconds of his fight to bring home another championship. John Chantler and Ken Stuart placed second in the meet and John Humphrey at heavyweight placed third. This completed the scoring for the event with a final score of Western 98, O.A.V.C. 82, University of Toronto 52, Queen's 20, and McGill 2. The Mustang wrestlers again showed their supremacy by bringing home the team and 6 individual championships.

INTERMEDIATE INTERCOLLEGIATE WRESTLING TEAM

The Intermediate wrestlers also brought home the team championship. Individual winners were Jim Catton at 123 pounds. Jamie Laird at 147 pounds. Bob Pearson at 157 pounds and Don Dal Bianco at 167 pounds. Second place positions went to Jim Barnum at 130 pounds and Bruce Bailey at 177 pounds. Thirds went to Lanny Staples at 137 pounds, Bob Fullerton at 191 pounds and Doug Aitchison at heavyweight. The final score read: Western 76, O.A.V.C. 71, and University of Toronto 68.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SQUASH

The squash team can once again look back on a relatively successful year. The team won five of their eleven matches, playing again this year without the valuable aid of a coach. The interest in squash was, as usual, at a very high level among both beginners and experienced alike, with court reservations as difficult as ever to obtain.

The team was aided this year by a newcomer in Jim Coons, who, as well as playing number one on the team, did a commendable job as manager and organizer. The remainder of the team was made up of Roger Proctor, Bruce Rudd, Bill Brown and Al Lindsay. The year was heightened by trips to Hamilton, Buffalo and Toronto, with matches both won and lost in each of these cities. For the first time this year, the Western team met with competition from London and won a close match over the London club three to two. The finish of the season was the intercollegiate championship, this year held on home ground with McGill and Toronto as visitors. Toronto and McGill came out on top in a draw at six matches apiece, with Western a not too distant last with three won. But this tallied up to two more matches won than last year's team, so that we can definitely say that squash at Western is on the way up.

INTERCOLLEGIATE BADMINTON

Last fall the cobwebs were once again dusted off the rackets and the badminton club got under way for another season. Lack of playing facilities again faced the exceptionally large number of students who turned out to participate. Courts were made available on Saturday mornings as well as the usual Wednesday evenings, and capable instruction in the fundamentals of the game was provided.

The club had a tremendous season under the guidance of captain Dave Johnstone. So much enthusiasm was shown that the officers have considered setting up a doubles and mixed doubles ladder for next fall. Continued instruction will be provided, although singles play remains an impossibility due to lack of playing facilities.

Near the end of January a team of four was chosen to represent Western at the annual intercollegiate badminton championships in Montreal. This year's team was composed of John Moses, Svend Albrektson, Dave Johnstone, and a newcomer, John White.

The University of Toronto's team, composed of two top ranking players, Peter Ferguson and James Cornwath, clinched first place in the two-day tournament. Queen's, McGill and Western fought it out for the remaining slots. By the end of the second day of the matches, a somewhat bedraggled but happy Western squad emerged a single point ahead of McGill to capture second place.

The tournament was a complete success, and already the Mustangs are looking forward to the 1959 championships. Unfortunately, two of Western's top performers, Svend Albrektson and Dave Johnstone, will graduate this year and the team will definitely feel the loss. Much confidence in next year's play already exists, however, since student interest in badminton is on the way up.

The Basketball Mustangs failed again in their bid for top honours in 1958, finishing with 12 points in third place. Varsity Blues walked off with the championship with a nine and one season. Assumption University Lancers finished in second spot with 16 points.

Ron Hodgins, Western's sharp-shooting sophomore forward from Toronto, won the Senior Intercollegiate scoring title with 177 points in 10 games. The only other Western player to gain the select group of players with 100 or more points was Barry Agar with 104. Hodgins showed signs of taking over Ray Monnot's position as he established a new single game Western scoring record, dumping in 40 points against Lawrence Tech Bluedevils in Detroit, January 18.

Playing the McGill University Redmen in the Intercollegiate opener, the Mustangs' sharp passing, strong rebounding and tight defence produced a one-sided game that ended with a 76-46 Mustang victory. At the half, the visitors trailed by only one point. Returning after the break, the Mustangs scored 21 points to catch the McGill squad sleeping. Eight of the ten Mustangs hit the scoring column with Hodgins leading the way with 29 points, followed by Gord Scratch and Rance Smeeton with 11 and 10 each.

In Windsor the following week, the Mustangs met defeat at the hands of the Assumption Lancers to the tune of 56-47. Western experienced a poor shooting night from the floor, but lost the game at the foul line, where the Lancers cashed in on 24 out of 37 chances.

Western bogged down temporarily when centre Barry Agar left the game on five personal fouls shortly after the five minute mark. Ron Rollo replaced Agar, sharing the centre slot with forward Paul Davis. Assumption faded badly as the game neared the finish and Gord Scratch's layup cut the margin to 51-47. Then following Paul Davis' attempted layup, and a resulting call of charging, Western was assessed three technical fouls and it was all over. Gord Scratch turned in a fine two-way effort for Western, turning in 14 points, while Hodgins had 11 and Agar 9.

Following a Saturday night victory of 76-68 over McMaster in Hamilton, the Mustangs went on to defeat the University of Toronto Blues 68-66 with some timely foul-shooting in the last minute of play. The two squads battled nip-and-tuck throughout the game with no more than five points separating them at any one time. A Mustang rally in the second half gave the purple team a five-point lead. The Blues, working a full-court press, cut into Western's lead and went ahead 63-62 with a minute and a half remaining. Then Rance Smeeton dumped in two foul shots and Ron Hodgins followed with a game-winning four-point effort in the dying seconds. For the Mustangs it was Hodgins with 24, Scratch with 13, Paul Davis with 12, and Smeeton and Langhorne with 9 and 7 points respectively.

At home the following Wednesday to the McMaster University team the Mustangs proved that they weren't a "choke-up" team as they pulled a 57-54 squeaker out of the fire. After changing the lead eight times during the second half, the Mustangs took a 53-51 lead on Ron Hodgins' one-hand specialty. Two baskets by Rance Smeeton gave the Mustangs the game and caused the stands to breathe a sigh of relief. Smeeton grabbed rebounds galore, checked tenaciously and threw in 18 points to lead the home club.

Rance Smeeton drives in for a layup against McGill

The Mustangs started the next week-end off on the right foot by thumping the McGill Redmen 77-38 in Montreal. Although they got off to a slow start, Western soon gained momentum and moved to a lop-sided win. Once again it was Hodgins who led the winners with 21 points, while two other sophomores, Barry Agar and Paul Davis, scored 15 and 11 points respectively.

In Kingston on Saturday night the Queen's Golden Gaels handed the Mustangs a 64-59 upset win. The Gaels, aided by big Jay McMahon, who hit for 21 points, piled up their score in the second half as the Mustangs tapered off badly to lose their comfortable 12-point lead at half-time.

The University of Toronto Blues came up with a 63-54 victory over the Mustangs to bring defeat to Western in Thames Hall for the second time since the 1950-51 season. Playing a cautious game during the first ten minutes, the Mustangs fashioned an early 9-2 lead. However, their seeming reluctance to shoot, coupled with a much improved Varsity offensive, erased the Mustangs' early margin and by half-time the Blues led 25-18. After the half, Western worked on Toronto's lead until they finally tied the score 31-31 after six minutes of play. With eight minutes to go, Ron Hodgins sparked the purple and white to a 43-39 lead. Then George Stulac lifted Toronto into a 49-45 lead with five minutes remaining. The Mustangs managed to cut the lead to one point with less than two minutes to go, then big Al Vaichulis killed Western's chances with two easy layups. Forced to throw on a full court press, the Mustangs drew several unnecessary technical fouls to fall even further behind. Once again, Ron Hodgins led the Mustangs with 23 points, while Barry Agar, having his troubles against the Varsity defence, had 9.

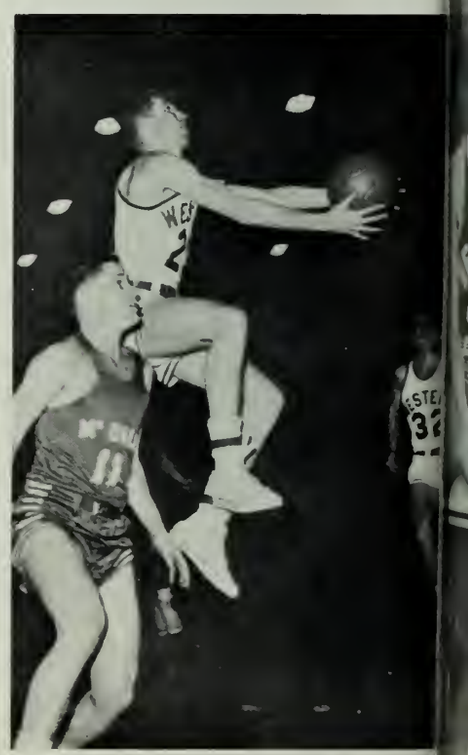
Up for the rebounds

Ron Rollo — Sophomore potential

Assumption University Lancers assured themselves of at least a second-spot finish in the league race when they ended the Mustangs' season with a 77-59 defeat. It was Assumption's first win in London since January 7, 1949.

Western, sinking eight of its first twelve shots, threatened to turn the game into a riot by steamrolling to an early 20-9 lead. By the half, Assumption had cut this until they had a slim 32-31 lead. Western could only manage to tie twice in the second half, as Assumption battled to a 47-43 lead with ten minutes to go. Western managed to keep pace with the Lancers for the next three minutes, but, with the score 51-48, field goals by Spang and Hool broke the Mustangs' back. For the Mustangs' last game, every team member hit the scoring column at least once, with Barry Agar leading the way with 14, followed by Ron Hodgins and Paul Davis with 12 and 9 respectively.

Hodgins goes high for a shot



Barry Agar — Height at centre

Intermediate Intercollegiate Basketball Team

The 1957-58 Colt Basketball Team gave coach Jack Fairs and assistant Ed. DeArmon the material to make attempts at utilizing the American style of changing defences.

With plenty of height to go along with lots of speed and hustle, the Colts were one of the best teams in the league. Three sophomores, Bob Bosworth, Ron Rollo and Don Stewart, added height for great rebounding during the season. Two freshmen, Ron Brown (6'7") and Leon Sydor (6'4"), rounded out the rebounding power of the team.

Experience wasn't lacking with the squad as it had such players as Bill Lawson, who played with Andy's in the Toronto Senior League. Another shifty guard is Howie Bobkin, who played several seasons with Toronto Y.M.H.A. John Thompson and Bob Myers, two London Conference all-stars, were outstanding on defence. Bob Gledhill, Leon Renouf and Scott Baker rounded out the team and all turned in fine performances.

In contests with several top American freshmen squads, the Colts defeated the Wayne University team while losing close matches with the University of Buffalo, University of Detroit and Genesius.

In the local intercollegiate league the Colts defeated the Assumption team in the first contest, upset the Varsity Baby Blues twice and split with Queen's. In the final game with Assumption for the league championship the Colts had trouble with the Windsor school's tight zone and lost the title by a bare two-point margin.

With the material and experience of the Colts, basketball at Western could return to the championship days of past years.

INTERFACULTY SPORTS

Through the interfaculty program, students at Western are offered the opportunity to engage in competitive individual and team sports. To the new student in particular, it is recommended that you identify yourself with at least one physical activity during the school year. Success in university life is more likely to be yours if you budget your leisure time carefully among things mental, social and physical.

W. J. L'Heureux.

The interfaculty program offers a great variety of sports:

six-man football
golf
tennis—singles and doubles
track and field
basketball
harrier
table tennis
swimming
handball
squash
softball
lacrosse

Winter-spring activities are:

volleyball
swimming
badminton—singles and doubles
table tennis—singles and doubles
squash
handball
wrestling
hockey
curling water polo
floor hockey
skiing
fencing

The interfaculty program offers a chance for interfaculty rivalry to be expressed through constructive means. This year's interfaculty program was won by the School of Business Administration, who participated in every sport offered and obtained more points than any other faculty.

INTRA

Eyes on the target

The 1958 Girls' Intramural Programme has been the closest and best on record! Much enthusiasm in every sport has been shown all year, with over 300 girls participating. We hope that this keen interest in girls' intramurals will continue in the future.

The Women's Athletic Committee, which looks after the running of women's sports at Western, conferred this spring to try and decide a method for gaining better participation in the Intramurals. An individual point system was established. This system has proved very successful this year.

The Intramural Programme got off to a good start this fall with the annual Golf Tournament, in which the general arts team, composed of Noreen Laing, Clara Heron, Ruth Treleaven and Sally Powell, placed first.

Over 40 girls participated in the Tennis Tournament, with freshette Marg Kukucka winning the singles, and Joy Woodward and Ros Allison winning the doubles.

This year the Intramural Track and Field Meet had over 30 girls participating. Honour Arts placed first, with Mary Lou Dresser, Shirley Moser, Dot Howe and Lois Thompson on the winning team.

The interest shown in Intramural Archery this year surpassed all hopes, and promises a bright future. Thirty-one girls participated, with the team of Edna Markham, Marge Fisk, Nancy Parker and Marg Houston on tops.

Over 70 girls played Intramural Basketball this year. The team from Brescia, led by their captain, Val Leroy, and coached by Heather Allison, took top honours.

Keen interest was shown in Intramural Bowling this year. The Honour Arts team of Yvette Walton, Shirley Brandon, Cathi Koroniak and Marilyn Laurie obtained high score.

The Intramural Volleyball Tournament received keen support from all the faculties with the Honour Arts team in first place.

Badminton had 52 girls participating this year, which provided lively competition. Singles were taken by Dot Cole, and doubles by Marge Fisk and Bernice Bent.

Table Tennis singles were taken by Carolynne Hobbs of Nursing and Science, and doubles by Gaye Phillips and Sanci Martin of Arts.

Thirty-two girls participated in the Intramural Swim Meet, with Brescia coming out on top. A large audience watched the proceedings and seemed to especially enjoy the pyjama relay and the 25-yd. dog paddle race.

For the first time, an Indoor Archery Tournament was held this year. The Honour Arts team of Lois Thompson, Shirley Moser, Marg Emerson and Carol Hunter placed first.

This tournament provided an exciting climax in the close race for the Laing Trophy, for it broke the tie between Honour Arts and General Arts, with Honour Arts ending on top.

Special thanks are extended to Lois Thompson, Intramural Manager, and to everyone who helped make the 1958 Intramurals the best ever. Let's keep up the keen interest in Girls' Intramurals!

The climax to women's athletics was the Women's Athletic Banquet held at Somerville House on March 27th. At this time awards for Intramural Sports were presented, as well as the bronze shields for the members of the winning Intercollegiate Teams.

BASKETBALL

The "Bronze Baby," emblematic of Women's Inter-Collegiate Basketball supremacy, has returned to Western!

This year, the tournament was played at McGill. Western won the championship after defeating Toronto 39-30 in the finals. Toronto placed second, Queen's third and McGill fourth. This tournament was the climax to a most successful basketball season, and our thanks go to this year's new coach, Miss Pat Demaray, who coached the girls to their victories and has done a wonderful job.

Reaching High!

The Western Intercollegiate Volleyball Team have done it again! Western, the first team in the college girls' competition to use the running spike, won its fifth consecutive Intercollegiate volleyball championship this year.

The annual tournament was held in Thames Hall. In the past five years, Western hasn't lost a game, and this year was no exception. With two points counting for a win, Western scored a perfect 10 points, with Queen's in second spot with 8 points. Queen's lost 33-15 to Western in the best game of the two-day tourney. McMaster and Toronto tied for third spot with 5 points each, with McGill and O.A.C. in fourth and fifth place.

All told, Western scored 264 points to their opponents' 81. This year was a turning point for girls' rules as it marked the last use of the double volley, now discarded in favour of faster action.

Congratulations to the Intercollegiate Volleyball Team, and to Mrs. Berzins, their coach, and Pat Osborn, their manager, for a job well done!

The Interwestern Volleyball Team defeated Alma College 38-24, and Waterloo 63-10, to win the Interwestern Volleyball Championship. This year, the tournament was held on March 4th, in Thames Hall.

The Kingston Tennis Club greeted the Intercollegiate Tennis Team with rather cool and wet weather this year, with rain cancelling all matches on the first day. Due to these unfavourable conditions, the matches were shortened to one set of 10 games each. A round robin tournament was still played, and points chalked up according to the number of wins per team.

Western girls put up a good fight this year to tie with McGill for second place. Toronto, with very strong singles and doubles, drove and volleyed their way into first place with 11 points. Western and McGill had 8 points, McMaster 2, and Queen's 1.

Dot Cole and freshette Marg Kukucka played singles, winning all of their matches but the one against Toronto. The doubles combination of Yvette Walton and Joy Woodward, a first-year nursing student, won two matches against Queen's and McMaster, and lost two close matches to Toronto and McGill by a 12-10 score.

The Intermediate Tennis Team won all of their matches against Alma College in the Inter-Western Play Day. Due to rain, the Westomac Play Day had to be held indoors this year. Badminton was substituted for tennis, and the Western girls won 5 out of 9 matches.

Queen's	13 points
McGill	8 points
Western	7 points
McMaster	3 points
O.A.C.	0 points

Dot Cole and Ruth Page, playing first and second singles for Western, each won 2 and lost 3 games, while the doubles team of Ros Allison and Debbie Mason won 3 out of 5 games.

The Inter-Western Badminton Team this year was composed of Judy Ratcliffe and Marilyn Laurie, playing singles, and Bernice Bent and Marge Fisk, playing doubles. The Western girls tied with Waterloo for first place, with Alma College in second spot. The tournament was played in Thames Hall.

For the fourth straight time, WESTERN'S INTER-COLLEGIATE SWIMMING TEAM won the title. This year, the meet was held at Toronto, and proved to be one of the most exciting and closest meets, with Western in first place with 46 points, McGill second with 40 points, and Queen's and Varsity tied for third place with 27 points.

In the speed events, Western won 5 out of 6. Mary Munn captured 2 firsts for Western in the 50 yard butterfly and 100 yard free style. Freshette Bev Eynon also obtained 2 firsts for Western in the 75 yard individual medley and 50 yard orthodox breast stroke. Jackie Tait placed first in the 50 yard back stroke.

In synchronized figures and in the solo "Maiden Moon," Peg Duncan placed third. Pat Griffin and Jean Crosby took fourth place in the synchronized duet, "Mama Doll."

Diving was upheld by Marilyn Ward and Becky Nash.

Coach Helen Korri, assistant coach Mrs. Lutz and team managers Mary Lou Dresser and Marg Emerson have done a wonderful job.

Congratulations, Intercollegiate Swimmers!

Other meets were held with the Detroit Women's Club, Detroit Turners, Michigan State, London Y and Brantford Y. These meets provided excellent competition.

The Inter-Western Track and Field Meet featured Alma and Western this year.

The high jump winners were Western's Dot Howe and Fran Busch. Yvette Walton and Mary Lou Dresser came first and second in the ball throw. Dot Howe and Lois Thompson placed second and third in the broad jump. In the 75 yard dash, Shirley Moser placed second, and Lloy Edighoffer third. Western's relay team, made up of Shirley Moser, Mary Lou Dresser, Mary Munn and Lloy Edighoffer, placed first. Western's score was 29, Alma's 15.

Congratulations, girls!

SOFTBALL

In the Inter-Western Softball Games, Western's team was successful in defeating Alma College.

Because of rain, the Westomac Play Day was held in the gym in Thames Hall. The softball team played a close game of Danish Rounders against McMaster and O.A.C., which provided an exciting finale to the play-day.

ARCHERY

Intercollegiate Archery was held this year at McGill.

Western was represented by a team of four girls: Edna Markham, Yvette Walton, Pat McKeen and Nancy Parker.

The universities represented were McGill, Queen's, Toronto, McMaster, O.A.C. and Western. McGill, the winner, was followed closely by the other five teams.

Although Western placed sixth, no one was disappointed with the showing. This year, Western featured the best players since 1952, and the wider interest displayed in archery this year promises a bright future.

Twenty-eight new pledges to the Alpha Omega chapter of Gamma Phi Beta were initiated early to the excitement of sorority activities. Many emerged a matching blue to the suite which they painted as a pledge project. Equally enthusiastic was their second group effort on the float for the Homecoming Parade.

The actives' endeavours during pledging were rewarded when all were welcomed into full membership at the Initiation Banquet, held at the Latin Quarter on November 8th. Guest speaker was a distinguished alumnus, Mrs. Donald Smith, M.D.

Gamma combined two enjoyable events on November 30th — the annual Bazaar and the Grey Cup on TV. Perhaps the feelings of cold and hunger evoked by rugby accounts for large sales of food and clothing.

Ticket selling gave way to Christmas shopping for the underprivileged children's party. For enthusiasm in the games and carolling, a distinction between the children and hostesses was difficult.

The new year was heralded by the major social function. Gamma's formal was held on January 17th at Glen Allen Restaurant. A hungry crowd returned to "693" for a buffet supper, which, as formerly, crowned the evening.

Highlights for all graduating Gammas is the traditional Retreat Week-end. Retold stories of pranks, house activities and campus life help fixed the memories for future years.

KAPPA ALPHA THETA

Gamma Epsilon chapter is one of 82 Kappa Alpha Theta chapters throughout Canada and the United States, and is 21 years old at Western.

The merry whirl of Sorority life began the first week of school with pledging on September 28. The actives then treated their 18 new "sisters" to dinner at the Iroquois.

The pledges were soon busy with paint and brushes as they put their artistic skills to good use on the upstairs "dorm" and the front porch.

Western alumni had an opportunity to see our pledges' artistic skills displayed on our float, which won honourable mention prize in the Homecoming parade.

Initiation day soon arrived, and on November 8 the "new" and the "old" Thetas enjoyed a dinner-dance at Glen Allen Restaurant. Mrs. F. Steadman, district president, was guest speaker.

Thetas have acted as hostesses many times during the year and have enjoyed every bit of it. For entertainment after home football games, Open House at Theta was the answer, and bandsmen and students from opposing schools have helped make them successes. Our Parents' Tea has become an annual event, and several fraternities have been guests at Theta House.

After a Christmas party with the Theta alums, the term ended with a Christmas dinner at the house, and a visit to Mason Villa old people's home, to carol.

The big social event of the year was the annual formal dance held at the Hunt Club, February 28. When the dancing was over, everyone returned to the chapter house for a buffet supper and more dancing.

The "penny for every inch of your waist measurement" admission to our project for the year — a dance — was used to help charity.

The school year was a pleasant one for all Thetas, and many lasting and loyal friendships were formed.

PI BETA PHI FRATERNITY

On April 28th, 1867, the first fraternity for women was founded at Monmouth College, Monmouth, Illinois. This fraternity, which became Pi Beta Phi, now has 103 chapters in the United States and Canada.

The Ontario Beta Chapter at Western has forty-one members, with nineteen girls pledged this year. As pledges, nineteen girls shivered through several weeks of washing cars to earn money for the pledge project. They sang gay ditties, cleaned silverware, and learned never to tangle with actives.

A square dance was held for the pledges and Pi Beta alumnae entertained them at a barbecue. Finally, on November 24th, the pledges became more dignified "new initiates" and received the long awaited symbol of Pi Beta Phi — the golden arrow and chain. The pledge banquet was held at the Hotel London.

During the winter season Pi Phi entertained several men's fraternities and went carolling with members of Beta Theta Pi.

The fraternity formal was held at Glen Allen and was certainly a gala event. Tink McLean entertained at her home prior to the dance.

The Pi Phi house underwent a face-lifting this year. The kitchen was repainted by several of Sanci's friends, the hall was redecorated, and broadloomed upstairs. Plans are now under way for decorating the living room. Members are very proud of their home and object only to the large lightbulb at the front door.

One of Pi Phi's most important activities concerns the altruistic project. This year, members of the fraternity visited the Home for the Blind to write letters and address Christmas cards, packed Christmas food baskets and knitted socks for the Cancer Society. These were most rewarding and pleasant duties.

In May, 1958, twenty-six girls graduated, taking with them memories of fun and friendship in Pi Beta Phi.

ALPHA KAPPA KAPPA

The third oldest medical fraternity in North America, Alpha Kappa Kappa was founded in 1888 at Dartmouth Medical College by a group of young medical students under the guiding hand of Dixi Crosby.

Since its organization, A.K.K. has become an International Fraternity with a total of 44 chapters and nearly forty thousand members. Beta Kappa Chapter in London was granted its charter in 1924, and in 1928 purchased its present residence, Cheiron House, at 16 Craig Street.

Even though it is a professional fraternity, B.K. of A.K.K. spends considerable time planning colourful rushing parties as well as promoting a serious approach to academic studies. The various yearly functions give that well needed release from everyday pressures. The Golf Tournament in September, the Annual Banquet, as well as the Christmas party for Cerebral Palsied Children, add to the extra-curricular activities of the members. The Formal Dance at the Hunt Club in early February provides a means of renewing old friendships between Alumni and Undergraduates. Sports are not left untackled, and Beta Kappa has strong entries in the interfraternity volleyball, hockey and golf leagues.

One of the more recent ventures undertaken by our fraternity has been the Professional Activities Committee, whose purpose it is to have outstanding medical men discuss advances in various branches of medical research. This, along with social events, helps provide the undergraduate with a well balanced program of fraternity life.

BETA SIGMA RHO

Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Rho was founded in 1910 at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. Since that time our fraternity has grown rapidly, and today has eleven chapters and approximately four thousand members.

Iota Chapter was founded in 1943 and chartered in March, 1945. Meetings at first were held in private homes until our first house at 456 Piccadilly Street was purchased in 1947. In 1956 the members of Beta Sigma Rho were proud to move into their new house at 305 Central Avenue.

Since moving into our new house we have made many improvements and alterations in it. New bedroom furniture was purchased, the halls and living room were freshly decorated, and the finishing touches were added to the recreation room.

This year we were especially proud to win the Inter-Fraternity Scholastic Cup. We considered this a wonderful achievement. Furthermore, many of our members participated in a wide variety of extra-curricular activities, bringing further honour to the fraternity.

On October the 19th Toronto Varsity again invaded the sacred confines of J. W. Little Memorial Stadium, and in conjunction with this event we held our annual Toronto-Western weekend dinner-dance. With the ballroom of the Hotel London being its setting, it turned out to be our biggest Fall social affair.

The annual Formal, held this year at Hook's, proved to be a very notable event and left the fellows with many pleasant and nostalgic memories.

With our annual Parent and Son Banquet, another highly successful year in our history drew to a close. The fellows expect that in the next year the fraternity will go on to even greater achievements.

BETA THETA PI

AS THE YEAR PASSED BY

Founded on campus as an all-science fraternity in 1933. Delta Alpha in 1952 became the 97th member on the roll of Beta Theta Pi.

Since this time we have attempted to diversify our membership. To this end Delta Alpha at present has members enrolled in every faculty on campus.

The formal initiation of fifteen new actives took place December 7th. The speaker on this impressive occasion was Don Bates, an alumnus well known to most of us. Following this, a party for the members and their dates was held at the chapter house at 266 Oxford Street.

Theme rushing parties have on occasion transformed the house into anything ranging from a veritable comic strip to the Paris flea market. The ingenuity shown in devising the costumes for such affairs was remarkable.

Winding up another year will see two active-alumni get-togethers at the Cobblestone Inn. The first of these will be the annual Spring Formal; highlight of the evening will be the traditional pinning ceremony. A few weeks later, the Alumni Dorg will provide additional opportunities for the various members to reflect on the past year.

DELTA UPSILON FRATERNITY

Delta Upsilon Fraternity was established at Williams College on November 4, 1834, as an anti-secret fraternity in protest against abuses of the existing fraternity system. It has continued to expand and includes 75 chapters in the United States and Canada, with a membership of over 33,000.

The chapter here at Western was established in 1931, when 65 members of the local Sigma Kappa Sigma applied for national recognition. These 65 men thus became the charter members of Delta Upsilon at Western. The chapter has grown and membership now includes some 55 men representing all faculties and schools of the University.

For the past 12 years the chapter house has been located at 307 Wolfe Street. Although the house has served its purpose extremely well, thoughts are now centering around a plan for a new fraternity house, and we hope that it won't be too long before the plans take some constructive shape.

Looking back over the school year, numerous events highlighted the social calendar. The rushing parties provided a great deal of entertainment for both members and rushees, who turned out in great numbers to enjoy the social evenings at D.U. As in other years, the "Western Party" and the "Evening in Paris" party were huge successes. In addition a new theme was introduced this year, the "Rock 'n' Roll" party. This party brought numerous "Elvis" characters and "bee-bop" girls, who rocked and rolled all evening to some real "swingin'" music.

The most outstanding event of the year is the Annual Formal. This year it was held at Hotel London, where active members and alumni guests danced from nine until twelve to the music of Bobby Downs and his orchestra. The evening commenced with a cocktail party at 307 Wolfe Street and ended with a delicious buffet supper at the Hotel.

All in all it was a very successful year for the Western Ontario chapter of Delta Upsilon, and we are looking forward to even greater accomplishments in years to come.

KAPPA ALPHA SOCIETY

Kappa Alpha, founded in 1825 at Union College, Schenectady, New York, is the oldest Greek-name society in existence. The Society made its appearance on the Western campus in 1948 and has since gained the admiration and respect of both faculty and students.

The fraternal ideals of brotherhood and friendship are maintained at K.A. by keeping the membership at an optimum size so that each brother plays an important role in the life of the Society.

Social highlights for active members were the Christmas Party (enjoyed by the many who started the festivities and the few who survived them) and the annual Formal Dance, held at the Glen Allen. Following these functions it was said of the bartenders that never before have so many been served by so few.

Open houses at the Lodge on football and basketball weekends once again proved enjoyable reunions for actives, alumni and the many visitors.

The K.A. Hard Rocks, drawing on their vast reserve of athletic prowess, won the I.F.C. hockey crown with an undefeated season. Many Kaps were once again active in athletics on the intercollegiate and interfaculty level.

Sigma Chi

As Sigma Chi Fraternity realized its 102nd birthday in June of 1957, U.W.O.'s Chi Delta Sigma, after a three-year struggle as a local independent chapter, became the newest chapter of Sigma Chi on the continent. The Sig name came to the campus officially at the 51st Grand Chapter of the Fraternity held in Toronto.

Although national affiliation with Sigma Chi had been the goal of the local chapter since formed in 1954, its realization left no void with the burdens that always fall on such a new organization.

The year began with a move of the Sigs from their old home at 910 Colborne to 179 Albert Street. If the house was smaller, the parties throughout the year didn't seem to decrease in size or intensity, and the walls, small walls but willing ones, bulged to accommodate everyone.

Before the fall pledge class could be initiated, the remaining activities of the Chi Delta Sigma group were brought into Sigma Chi. Alumni returned from all over the province to become Sigs. As a result, the two initiations before the new year were highly successful both in bringing the heritage of Sigma Chi to its new members, and in providing a reunion for old brothers in a new organization.

With 1958 the Sig membership looked back on a year of great advance, and plunged enthusiastically into another one with the annual formal as a starter. The men of the white cross tossed their hats into the interfraternity basketball and hockey rings.

The end of the 1957-58 school year found Sigma Chi firmly established on the Western campus, a goal that four years ago was but a hopeful thought in the minds of Chi Delta Sigma's founders.

ZETA PSI FRATERNITY

The Zeta Psi Fraternity of North America is basically an undergraduate organization whose main function is not strictly educational but rather social. It endeavours to perform the function of a family, that is, the development of the whole individual, on thirty-three campuses in North America. This is accomplished not only by bringing about an active awareness of the potentialities of university life, but also the making of these potentialities, realities. Such an appreciation is developed by a group of close, intelligent men who have the magnanimity to encourage and believe in each other. "In every man there is a king and a pauper. If the king is spoken of, the king will come out."

At the convention in San Francisco this past September, Theta Phi Chapter was greatly praised for its achievements. Colin McArthur and Brian Knight were on hand to accept these congratulations.

Boots

The Dwarf and the Elf

Shootir

This fall twenty-five new brothers were accepted into our fellowship. The Rushing Chairman certainly did a fine job on this score. Highlighting the rushing parties this year was the Barn Party and the entertainment provided by the Pledges.

Throughout the winter there were numerous parties at which the Brothers were able to enjoy the lighter side of life. Outstanding were the Christmas Party and the Zeta Psi Formal.

By tradition, Zeta Psi is not restricted to its own interests. Theta Phi Chapter made a successful attempt this fall to contribute to the community. The Brothers appreciated the opportunity to assist the Goodwill Mission in a clean-up campaign. There was much satisfaction also in the privilege to entertain some of London's less fortunate children on a number of occasions.

In the minds of the Brothers of Theta Phi Chapter of Zeta Psi Fraternity, the year 1957-1958 will go down as one of the most successful.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

The Panhellenic Council looks back on a busy but certainly very enjoyable year. At a series of dinner meetings held alternately in the genial and gracious atmospheres of the three sorority houses, the Council planned the entire year's rushing program and formulated all policies affecting the status of the women's Greek letter organizations on this campus.

Special thanks are extended to Dr. Leola Neal, Panhellenic's Honorary President, who, in spite of her own full schedule, was on hand at every meeting with vital advice. Miss Margaret May, Assistant Registrar, also rendered valuable aid to the Council.

We are very fortunate here at Western that our sororities are guided and supported by the University Administration; and through the efforts of the Panhellenic Council we can point with pride to the fact that women's rushing and inter-fraternity relations rank among the most excellent on this continent.

INTER-FRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Inter-fraternity Council is an organization composed of representatives from all fraternities on the Western campus. Its purpose is to co-ordinate the functions of the various fraternities as well as organize inter-fraternity functions. The Council also maintains and administers the regulations laid down by the fraternities.

This year the Council devoted much time to improving the present system of rushing and also investigating the problem of expanding the fraternity population at Western.

It is the desire of the Council that all those interested in participating in and contributing to fraternity life at Western will be able to do so.

MacKinnon House is a home away from home for fifteen young men where they can live together in Christian fellowship. Located at 1223 Richmond Street, this house is owned by the London Conference Residence Committee of the United Church of Canada.

The students in residence maintain a co-operative system of sharing expenses and helping with the housework. Our house mother, "Mom" Scott, prepares the evening meal.

A worship service and group discussion are held each evening. These times of devotion together bring us closer to an understanding of our Christian faith.

The chief social functions of the year have been the November Open House, when hundreds of friends of the house visited and inspected the newly renovated premises; the Christmas party, when we were host to representatives of the various campus religious clubs; a party after the U.C. Ball, and a closing party early in May.

The MacKinnon House Alumni Association held its second annual meeting early in February. Alumni officers elected for 1958-9 were:

President - - - - - - - - - - - George Pond
Vice-President - - - - - - - - - Wallace Little
Secretary-Treasurer - - - - - - - - Howard Plant

Currently the chief function of the organization is to establish a trust fund in memory of the late Clifford Kelly (1929-1956), an instigator in the formation of the house in 1951. The fund is to be used for the creation of a university bursary to be awarded annually. All members eagerly anticipate the publication of the semi-annual Mack News published by the Alumni.

Brescia Hall

BRESCIA HALL

During Orientation Week of 1957-58, a new code was added to the Brescia vocabulary, as humble freshettes obediently chanted — "I am a Brescia Bug." It was thus that the Upperclassmen derived the respect proper to them. However, on October 23, forty-five freshettes formally became members of Ursuline College as they were given the symbolic cap and gown at Freshmen Investiture. This distinction was soon forgotten as upperclassmen and freshettes united their efforts to complete many projects, the first of which was the annual tea, held for the University professors and their wives.

The various clubs of the college also began to contribute their part to the girls' enjoyment. Some of these functions were the Freshettes' Tea, conducted by the Brescia freshettes for their classmates from the other colleges; a party for underprivileged children, sponsored by the Sodality; many educational projects undertaken by the Christian Radical organization, and a very successful play, presented by the Drama Club.

SPENCER HALL

"SPENCER"

Spencer Hall, the former residence of Major-General A. C. Spencer, was, for the seventh year, "home" to 104 out-of-town girls. Under the supervision of Mrs. H. F. Struckett, the Warden, and two dons, Miss M. Balmer and Miss B. Shaw, the girls of Spencer Hall had an eventful year.

Many social activities were organized by the Spencer Hall Council, a group elected by the girls, which worked in close co-operation with the Advisory Committee on Spencer Hall.

In October a Hallowe'en party was held with the residents of Huron College, and throughout the year the two groups shared varied activities such as a debate, snowball fight and other social evenings.

Homecoming, in November, was a busy time for Spencer girls as they combined their talents to produce the second-prize float in the Homecoming parade. Later in November a Faculty Tea was held.

CHRIST THE KING COLLEGE

The academic year 1957-58 was one of further growth and achievement at Christ the King College, the University's youngest affiliate. Registration increased to 160, and the residence was filled to capacity with 108 students.

Notable among the year's achievements was the founding of the College newspaper, The King's Men. The Social Committee of Students' Council arranged the enjoyable Annual Ball at the Hunt Club, which was followed by a buffet lunch at the College. On a less formal note, colourful Christmas and Mardi Gras parties were held in the Lounge. The long awaited Snack Bar was opened, and a Hi-Fi set acquired for the students' listening pleasure.

Societies burgeoned forth as student interests multiplied: the Lindgard Society (the history club of the College), the Salon Mauriac and the Circolo Universitario Italiano. The nucleus of a dramatic club was formed when C.K.C. students co-operated with Brescia in the successful production of "The Importance of Being Earnest." This was followed by the presentation of Fry's "A Sleep of Prisoners," during the spring term.

Students' Council Cultural Committee sponsored an interesting series of lecture-recitals covering the history of music, and a second series of guest lectures was given in the spring by four scholars in the visual arts: Dr. Peter Brieger, Dr. Martin Soria, Dr. W. F. A. Dale and Dr. Wolfgang Stechow. Perhaps one of the most memorable of the year's events was the demonstration-lecture on ballet given by Miss Celia Franca and two of her young dancers from the National Ballet. Besides promoting interest in the arts, these lectures provided an occasion for the College to invite friends from University campus to visit C.K.C., and so to advance one of the avowed aims of the College: to be a House of Hospitality.

In Interfaculty Sports, C.K.C. teams were active, if not always victorious, participants. In hockey the College again had a team capable of defending successfully the championship held now for two successive years. In floor hockey, too, success was had.

The annual Spiritual Retreat placed in their proper perspective these multifarious activities of College life, emphasizing the fact that "the foremost motivation and reason for the College is the honour and glory of Christ the King, true God and true Man."

The Residence

HURON COLLEGE

Once again another year has passed at Huron, and all previous residents are sure to agree that it was the best ever, despite the many changes. With the third floor of the residence ready for occupation, this year saw the largest number of "worms" ever to enter the college; and with the addition of Hellmuth Hall, twelve lovely ladies entered our portals, their first admirer being suitably dubbed "Harry the Hustler."

The first big splash of the season was the annual Huron Ball, under the direction of Social Committee Chairman Bill Work. The dance was a huge success, owing largely to the decorations, which even surpassed the magnificent ones of last year. The three dancing rooms were transformed in minute detail into various pictures based on an ancient Egyptian theme.

At Christmas, just before the holidays, a very successful party was held in the common room, complete with Santa Claus and some rather unusual presents for the girls. Unfortunately, the usual party for the orphans could not be held, but the sophomores planned to entertain the children sometime in February.

In athletics, Huron is in second place in the Interfac standings, and chances for winning the title look very promising. Among the many various activities at the college, special mention should be given to Skitch Ellis, Chairman of the Cultural Committee, who has formed or organized such clubs as the chess, glee, bridge, debating, and drama.

This spring, with the thoughts of forthcoming exams heavy in their minds, the men look forward to their last big events — the pre-Lenten Party and the Grad. Banquet.

Huron College Council

At the dinner the Athletic Awards and Trophies will be presented, as well as the Honour Awards. This year a new silver award has been introduced which may be presented to anyone in the college for special merit.

The future for Huron looks bright. Residences for the faculty are being built, and new classrooms for the college; the response to Hellmuth Hall was amazing, and its growth and importance cannot be over estimated; and the participation of the students in extra-curricular activities, which plays such an important role in college life, helped to make the year complete. Guiding the way was the Students' Council under the able direction of Chairman Tim Haynes. Congratulations, gentlemen. A good job well done.

All in all, Huron still "stands together."

Remembrance Day

Lest we forget our former students who fought and died—that we might live.

To their everlasting glory, the students of the University of Western Ontario solemnly bow their heads in remembrance and thanks . . .

Now rest in peace, our patriot band;
Though far from nature's limits thrown,
We trust they find a happier land,
A brighter sunshine of their own.

—Philip Freneau.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS' COUNCIL

The supreme administrative body of students at the University is the University Students' Council. Its jurisdiction extends over seventy-four organizations, including the U.C.C., Hippocratic Council, Business Council, Gazette, Purple Spur Society, Purple Patches, N.F.C.U.S., and W.U.S.C.

Sixteen students are elected in January. These represent their faculty, school or college on the Council. Later, when the presidents and vice-presidents of the subordinate councils are elected, six of them serve as ex-officio members of the U.S.C.

During the summer the first major problem arose; Purple Patches director and business manager resigned. Fortunately, Sue Hawkins did some very quick work and found Herb Bryce, who accepted the job as director. He produced an original student production which was one of Western's best performances.

In September, an eleven thousand dollar debt was brought to the Council. Helping to pay this strained the budgets of the U.S.C. and almost every organization supported by the Council. John Stephenson's budget was the topic of two stormy meetings before it was approved.

The Department of Justice, under the direction of Hugh Crothers, handled the parking problem successfully. It was a pleasure to drive on the campus roads without lines of parked cars on both sides.

The Parent-Student Open House was held again this year. It was more comprehensive than any other held in the past, and very successful. We hope this event will become an annual one.

This year was a busy one for the Council members. Meetings were held almost every week in October, November and December, at which a great many interesting opinions were expressed. We remember all these things with a great deal of pleasure.

THE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE COUNCIL

The University College Council is the student governing body in the University College, the largest group under the jurisdiction of the U.S.C.

The U.C.C. consists of (1) the Prefect (male) and Sub-Prefect (female), who head the council, (2) elected representatives from each year (male and female), and four elected year executives, each consisting of a president (male), vice-president (female), secretary (female) and treasurer (male).

The operating part of the U.C.C. consists of 18 members. The first two groups mentioned above and the presidents of each of the four year executives form this group.

Elections for the above members take place in late February and early March; the Prefect and Sub-Prefect being elected two weeks before the other members. The Frosh executive is elected in the early part of October.

The U.S.C. gives the U.C.C. a constitutional grant each year to carry out its projects. Some of these projects are as follows:

The care and supervision of the Co-Ed Lounge.

A grant each year to the Student Benevolent Fund which is supervised by the administration, providing grants to needy students.

The Money Box, a loan fund, providing grants of $5 or $10 in emergencies to needy students for a one-week period free of interest.

Grants to 15 or 20 campus clubs whose constitutions are registered with U.C.C. to assist them in carrying on their activities.

A used book store which is set up in the Arts Building at the time of registration.

The care of bulletin boards, and the supplying of ink to the library.

And until Christmas the lost and found, which is now under the supervision of the U.S.C.

Setting up a Remembrance Day Service in which the students of University College participate.

Sponsoring each year the U.C. Ball, held this year on January 31 and featuring Billy May's orchestra. This is the major social event of the year undertaken by the U.C.C. and it is attended by all members of the University.

Setting up Honour and Merit Awards for those students of University College who have contributed a great deal to University life in extra-curricular activities.

Preparing a banquet for the graduating year executive, who also provide the graduating student the privilege of purchasing pins and rings bearing the University shield.

BUSINESS COUNCIL

Once again, the Business Council, with the enthusiastic support of all business students, was able to fulfil its aims and purposes.

The Council was organized mainly to regulate and organize undergraduate activities in the Business School. It also acts as a liaison between the faculty, students and other faculties and colleges.

To ensure maximum participation, the Council delegates the responsibility for organizing most of the School's activities to non-council members.

The year's activities included such social functions as the Business Ball, post-exam party, and stags.

The annual parent-student week-end was held in November. This function enables the parents to see how the case method of study is carried out and to meet the faculty of the School.

The Job Clinic, which helps students to familiarize themselves with the fields of business before graduation, is one of the Council's responsibilities.

Another Council activity is that of assisting students in finding employment. This work is carried out by the Student Job Placement Committee in conjunction with the School's Job Placement Officer.

These activities are only a few of the Council's efforts to effectively serve the interests of the student body of the School.

THE HIPPOCRATIC COUNCIL

The Hippocratic Council is the governing body of the Hippocratic Society, whose membership includes all undergraduates in Medical School. The aims and objects of the Council are as follows:

To provide adequate communication between medical students and the faculty.

To control all non-athletic extra-curricular activities of the undergraduate Medical student body.

To recognize and support the University Students' Council.

The Society maintains an affiliation with the Canadian Association of Medical Students and Internes (C.A.M.S.I.) C.A.M.S.I. is active in procuring medical films, the administration of the Canadian Interne Placement Service, a C.A.M.S.I. Life Insurance Plan, and, more recently, Staff-Student parleys.

Socially, the Society sponsors the Meds Picnic, the Hippocratic Banquet, the Meds-At-Home and our annual revue, Tachycardia, by the Meds Merrymakers. The Hippocratic Banquet was honoured this year by the presence of Sir Robert Watson-Watt, the inventor of Radar, who was the guest speaker.

The Society also supports the U.W.O. Medical Journal, the Osler Society, an undergraduate historical organization, and the Meds Choir for those who like "just singing."

The Parent-Student Open House is an innovation which, through Medical School participation, will certainly foster relationships between students, parents and the teachers and their work.

The life of a Medical Student is a full one, and the Hippocratic Council is pleased to take a part in supplementing students' academic life with constructive diversions.

MUSIC TEACHERS' COUNCIL

The students at Music Teachers' College are now well settled in their new home, the Silverwood Building (formerly Goodholm of the School of Business Administration), which was donated to us by Mr. A. E. Silverwood. The M.T.C. types have now successfully banished all traces of business students, and with eighteen pianos going night and day, all in the vicinity have no doubts about the change in profession of the building.

The enrolment at M.T.C. is growing every year and there are now about forty students studying piano, voice, theory, organ, composition, and clarinet. As enrolment is increasing, so is the scope of the program of studies. One of the highlights of the year was the concert given by five students as soloists with the London Symphony Orchestra. This was the second annual concert of this type sponsored by the Sunday Nine O'Clock, and featured four students playing piano concerti and an operatic aria sung by one of the vocal students.

Undergraduates and alumni alike were grieved by the passing last spring of our principal, Dr. Harvey Robb, who had guided the College so well during its early days. We know that Mr. Clifford Poole, the newly appointed principal, will give the strong leadership and progressive outlook which M.T.C. was fortunate to have under the late Dr. Robb.

The traditionally strong group spirit at the College manifested itself during the year in several enthusiastically supported social events. An informal "we're-back-at-college" party and a gaily decorated Christmas party marked the fall season, while the year was aptly closed with a dinner and dance at the Knotty Pine Inn.

NURSING COUNCIL

The School of Nursing has graduate nurses registered in the Nursing Education course and the Public Health course. Although here for only one or two years, we are proud to be a part of the University of Western Ontario. Our purpose in the School of Nursing is to further our knowledge and abilities in order to meet the ever-increasing demands on our profession by society today.

The campus activities received excellent participation by the School of Nursing. The nurses played a very active role in sports. They participated in intramural volleyball, basketball, swimming, golf and badminton. A float with the theme of the flu epidemic was entered in the Homecoming Week-end parade. Assistance with decorations and scenery for Purple Patches and the U.C. Ball was given by the nurses. Also, such activities as the Choir, Psychology Club, Gilbert and Sullivan Society, and the Sunday Nine O'Clock had good representation from them.

The Nursing School itself had numerous social activities throughout the year. This was highlighted by the annual formal, which was a great success. The nurses will remember this year as one of rich and varied experience. Besides social refreshment, it has given us great intellectual stimulus, a year well shared, never to be forgotten.

UNDERGRADUATE ENGINEERING SOCIETY

In the spring of 1957 the Undergraduate Engineering Society came into being, representing a small but growing number of students in Western's newest branch of Science. Its first major objective, representation on the Students' Council for the one hundred and seventeen engineering students on campus, was attained in October of this year.

In January, its first major social venture, the Engineers' Ball, was also pronounced successful. Parties for various occasions, industrial survey trips and a graduation banquet for the first engineering class to leave Western University all come under the scope of the organization's planning groups. In future it is hoped that the Society will be able to sponsor many subsidiary organizations arising within the Engineering group.

PURPLE SPUR SOCIETY

Organized under the jurisdiction of the U.S.C., the Purple Spur supervises functions which are of al "All-Western" nature. It acts as a liaison between the U.S.C. and the Frosh Welcoming Committee, the Mustang Band, the Cheerleaders, the Athletic department, and the Alumni department, in addition to making all arrangements for athletic week-ends, including football and basketball dances. It also welcomes any out-of-town guests at the request of the U.S.C. or any branch of the administration of the University. This year the Purple Spur will again sponsor in connection with the U.S.C. an Open House for the whole University. Lectures, guided tours, displays, and athletic performances were again presented, on an expanded scale. The success of the experiment a year ago led to a program of widened scope this year.

GRADUATE BUSINESS COUNCIL

The Graduate Business Council is the elected body representing the students enrolled in the M.B.A. program. The Council owes much of its success in outside activities to the excellent co-operation received from the faculty of the School of Business Administration.

Some of the highlights for the year included:

Job Clinic Program held last fall with Andie Wolfe of M.B.A. II handling the graduate side of the program.

Publication of the Job Brochure, which was mailed to 600 prospective employers under the direction of Wally Ball.

The M.B.A. Dinner-Dance held at the Hotel London, which was organized by Jack Spratt.

Activities of a refined social nature, stags, cocktail parties, etc., were directed by Patrick Rourke.

The athletic activities of this aging group were under the supervision of John Ross. John's administrative policy was pay now, collect later.

One of the main highlights of the year was President Bart Turner's lunch hour discourse in the Great Hall. His subject — the Rielists. I believe this embryonic group vanished after Bart's comments reached the grass roots.

The Council and graduate business students enjoyed an excellent year under the able leadership of Bart Turner.

SPEAKERS CLUB

Purpose and Achievements:

Every student in the School of Business Administration and other faculties is keenly interested in first-hand knowledge of affairs in the current business society. It would be inconvenient for both students and industry to have this inquisitiveness satisfied on an individual basis. There must be a system whereby businessmen can spend a few hours with the students collectively and endeavour to provide the answers where possible. The Speakers Club is this communicating system. It attempts to discern the interests of the students and then to search out a man who most capably can satisfy these interests.

Prominent in the minds of many at the Business School this past year was the A. V. Roe-Dosco merger. The Speakers Club was privileged to have Mr. A. R. Williams, Assistant to the Vice-President of A. V. Roe. with them for an afternoon. This get-together was typical of the functions of the Speakers Club. The truth lying behind many of the rumours which enveloped this transaction was brought out. This discussion, like many others the Speakers Club has promoted, achieved the basic purpose and goal of the organization: to present to the students of Western, and the Business School in particular, a first-hand, unadulterated perception of current business problems and solutions.

MARKETING CLUB

The Marketing Club was organized in the fall of 1953 at the suggestion of Dean Jones. The purpose of the club is to present speakers, films and tours in the various fields of marketing to the club members. During the year several prominent businessmen spoke on such subjects as advertising agencies, advertising media, opportunities for graduates in marketing, market research functions, attitudes towards public relations.

It is hoped that more Canadian universities will organize Marketing Clubs, hence enabling the holding of Required Conferences. which have proven very successful among universities in the United States.

OCCIDENTALIA EDITORIAL BOARD 1958

With the end at hand, the Oxy staffers are putting the last touches on layout pages and getting ready to throw out empty paste pots. It has been an interesting year even though it has been pretty hectic trying to meet those "deadlines." We can now sit back with an air of satisfaction in a job well done.

There have been a few changes this year and we hope that you will approve of them. The colour prints were omitted and replaced by an "all-new" leather cover. There are more and more pictures as we try to give coverage to all the important social, athletic and cultural events on campus during the year.

Although the pressure was always on us (because we had to get our pages in by mid-March and make sure that Oxy was definitely out on time this year), we enjoyed pasting pictures, getting write-ups, and were always delighted to see page numbers checked off on the completed page schedule.

To those outside the Oxy staff who have helped by giving write-ups and pictures, to say nothing of the people who have been out selling Oxys, the editorial board wishes to say "many thanks." We, in Oxy, enjoyed putting your year book together for you.

To those of you who are remaining to carry on next year, the old production staff wishes you every success.

PHOTAGS

Under the direction of Jack Tyson, the photography department worked diligently to produce the '58 Oxy. Through the use of newly purchased equipment the staff has been able to produce what we feel to be a bigger and better Occidentalia.

The staff included: Jack "J. J." Tyson, Photo Editor (above centre); Monte "photo-by" Cook, Gazit photog (top right); Ed "Happy" Hartlin (bottom right) and Grant "Coop" Cooper (top left), general assignment photogs; Paul "Rupe" Ruppel (centre left) and Gerry "Foto" Fulton (bottom left), darkroom technicians; and Tim "Cambridge" Green (centre right), all-round good sport.

The photography department worked long and hard. But the high calibre of the many photos in the book would not have been possible without the willing assistance of all those wonderful people around the school who contributed their time, talents and photographs.

HIPPO-CAMPUS

The Hippo-Campus is a venture on the part of the medical students to create a newspaper of their own to deal with current affairs. By establishing the Hippo-Campus, some of the students hoped to encourage writing in interested medical students. The paper often carried items of interest to Meds that could not be covered in the school's Gazette. The Hippo-Campus welcomes articles from the staff, and hopes in this way to promote an exchange of ideas between students and staff. This year the Hippo-Campus succeeded admirably in its attempt to give the medical students a paper written exclusively by, and for, them.

MEDICAL JOURNAL

The Medical Journal functions in two ways. First it enables its contributors to gain experience in preparing papers for publication; and secondly it enables those who join the staff to gain extra-curricular experience in writing, abstracting, advertising, circulation, exchange and group co-operation.

The Medical Journal was established in 1930 and is now a healthy publication enjoying world-wide distribution through subscriptions and exchange arrangements with other publications. Approximately thirty-five per cent. of the periodicals which appear in the Medical Library are obtained through our exchange endeavours.

The present policy is to make each issue a symposium, but only in the looser sense, since papers on any topic are always welcome, subject to approval by the Editorial Board.

The Southam Trophy, friends, criticism, plaudits, Meds' editorials and tiddlywink contests were won by the Gazette this year.

The U.W.O. Gazette came out faithfully every Friday. A few people must have read it, to judge by the criticism. And quite a few must have misread it, to judge by the guest editorials and letters to the editor. Nevertheless it was a good paper.

It must have been a good paper. It won the Southam Trophy. The trophy presented annually to the best college newspaper in Canada.

The actual trophy never did find its way into the Gazette office. (Somone lost it in Toronto.) But everything else showed up in Room 116 of Somerville House. Sometimes a journalist or two could even be found there.

In fact on Wednesdays and Thursdays the cruddy place was inundated with them — tall, short, old, young, and of all sexes.

Cracking the whip over this hard-working crew was a tall, angular chap from the northlands — Chris Salzen. Chris does every job on a newspaper well and his hard work and leadership were responsible for the Gazette's winning of the claim as Canada's finest university undergraduate newspaper.

A good leader must have good followers. And there were.

News editor Bob Stamp was one of the hardest-working.

Joan Davidson, the executive editor, was responsible for the editorial page.

Writer of editorials, news, features, that's Don Martin, the associate editor.

By actual independent survey, the most widely read columnist in the paper was Clay M. Powell, the sports editor.

The features editor, Tim Green, wrote, took pictures, and generally put on a "jolly good show."

Next comes Monte (Photo By) Cook. Monte, as photo editor, practically filled the paper with pictures some weeks, and as a writer nearly killed the paper other weeks. However, it must be admitted the pictures were good.

Every paper has a cartoonist. The Gazette had the very best — Wynn Walters. Wynn wrote and drew, doing both with the greatest skill.

From cod-fish to morals was the beat handled expertly by the asistant news editor. Marilyn McLean. Also thanks to the other members of the staff.

And finally there were all the people down at the London Free Press who made the task possible each week. The man most responsible for the Gazette being printed was Frank Welshman. Thanks, Frank!

And thanks also to the many others who made the 1957-58 Gazette the best ever!

STUDENT HANDBOOK

The Student Handbook was formed nine years ago when it was decided that the Constitutional Handbook and the Student Directory should be combined to provide a concise reference book. The purpose of the book is two-fold: to enable the students to become familiar with the clubs and organizations functioning on the campus and to provide a quick, convenient method of contacting one's friends.

The co-editors, who are responsible to the U.S.C., were Doug Reid and John Stephenson. This year two new features were added to the book, namely: the U.S.C. Constitution and Dr. Hall's article, "Western Meets the Challenge to Education." It is anticipated that the students at Western have derived as much pleasure having the book as we did in bringing it to you.

FOLIO

Folio is Western's literary publication. It is composed entirely of poetry and short stories contributed by members of the student body. As such, it does not pretend to be a professional effort; it is an experiment, an attempt to stimulate interest in creative thought. Folio cannot be developed and produced through the efforts of its editors alone; it must arise from the vitality and interests of the student body. Thus, insofar as this publication fulfils its purpose, it must be the sincerest and most unique expression, not only of student opinion, but also of student emotion and experience.

Folio is published annually and January 31st is the deadline for contributions. The magazine itself is distributed sometime in March. Each member of the university is entitled to submit as many manuscripts as he wishes.

This year the staff is as follows: Paul A. Rush, Editor; Jessie Wareham, Assistant Editor; Sonya Christopher, Business Manager. James Scott, the Faculty Advisor and a professional free-lance writer, is willing and able to give valuable advice and encouragement to all who are interested enough in creative writing to consult him.

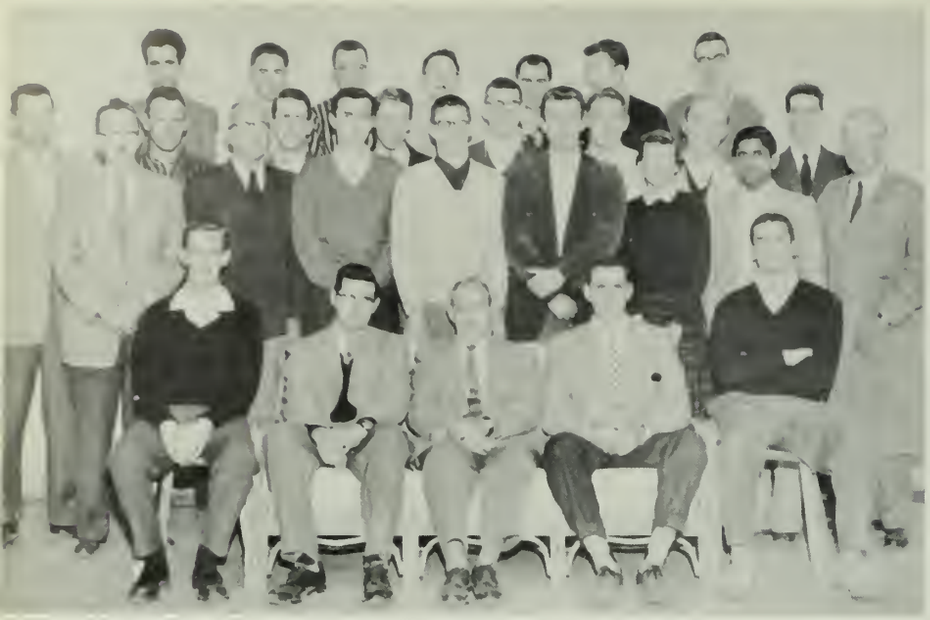
CENTRALIZED ADVERTISING BUREAU

The Centralized Advertising Bureau is the only organization which the University Students' Council authorizes to sell advertising for student publications. The Bureau, whose new office is in the student row in Somerville House, sells and promotes advertising in the weekly student newspaper, The Gazette, the University yearbook, The Occidentalia, the student handbook, Folio, and various programs, athletic and social, which appear during the school year. It also aids student organizations in approving proofs before the advertising is run. Once the publication has come off the press, the Bureau is responsible for sending to the advertisers tear sheets of their advertisements, along with the placing of advertising in outside media or planning of publicity campaigns.

The manager, appointed by the U.S.C., is directly responsible to the Minister of Publications. As his staff, the manager has two assistant managers, one to handle national advertising, one to handle local advertising, as well as three other local salesmen.

The Bureau is responsible for selling advertisements, laying them out, getting them to the printer, and billing. Upon receipt of payment, the Bureau deducts its commission and passes remaining revenue on to the publication for whom the advertisement was sold.



OUTCROP CLUB

The Outcrop Club is one of many student Geological organizations found at various Canadian Universities. This club is affiliated with the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy, a professional organization which accepts students as student members. Membership at the University is open to second, third and fourth-year students.

Meetings are held every two weeks in the Geology Department, at which future activities are discussed and planned. The activities of the club are varied and include speakers, films, educational tours and parties.

Social events for this year consisted of a wiener roast in the fall and the annual Christmas party, in which all members and the faculty participated.

OSLER SOCIETY

The Osler Society was founded at Western in 1926 by Dr. J. W. Crane and a group of interested medical students. The aim of the Society is to promote thought and to stimulate discussion on topics of medical history. Every member reads a paper on a topic of his own choice at the meetings, after which a discussion period is held. All medical students who desire to know more about the historical background of their chosen profession are welcome to attend the meetings. Scrolls and keys are presented to the Osler Society members of the graduating class at the annual banquet which terminates the year's activities. At the banquet the honorary president for the year gives an address upon a subject in which Sir William Osler, the Canadian physician for whom the Society was named, was interested.

MEDICAL SCHOOL CHOIR

The Meds' Choir is composed of a group of medical students who enjoy choral singing. This is the only qualification for membership.

Throughout the school year, the choir participated in a number of school activities, including the Frosh Welcoming Show, the Alumnae Homecoming Show, Purple Patches, and the Meds' Merrymakers Variety Show, "Tachycardia." During the Christmas season the Nurses and Meds' Choir unite in an evening of carolling at various hospitals, institutions and residences throughout the city.

N. F. C. U. S.

The National Federation of Canadian University Students at Western is composed of members of the undergraduate student body which is endeavouring to further the interests of Canadian University Students.

The objects of N.F.C.U.S. are: (1) to promote in every way possible a better understanding among all Canadian University students; (2) to promote a greater degree of co-operation and correlation among all Canadian Universities; (3) to promote student interests; (4) to provide a means of developing international relationships with students in other countries.

Western, as a member of N.F.C.U.S., plays an integral part in the national organization, which represents the majority of Canadian Universities. The National headquarters for this organization is situated in Ottawa.

In October, Doreen Anderson, Fred Beavers and Steve Markovich represented Western at the annual N.F.C.U.S. Conference, held this year at Laval University. During the conference Fred Beavers was appointed the Ontario Regional President.

The first National N.F.C.U.S. Seminar will be held in September at Western. The Canada Council has agreed to give a substantial grant to cover the major part of the expenses. From forty to fifty students representing N.F.C.U.S. universities from all across Canada will attend.

One of the major projects of N.F.C.U.S. is a national Scholarship Campaign through which the organization is striving to further the interests of university students by greater financial assistance from the Dominion Government. This scholarship campaign includes regional scholarships which allow any student to transfer from a university in one region to one in another region. All expenses are covered excepting board. The only obligation the student has is that of sitting on the N.F.C.U.S. committee in the new university. This year Barbara Biely is attending Western as a representative of the University of British Columbia.

This year Western sponsored a very successful National Photography Contest. Other N.F.C.U.S. projects of considerable importance are the National Competitions in Art, Short Stories, and Debating, along with Low Cost Travel Tours which this year are including a new tour allowing for travel into the Soviet countries.

Membership in the N.F.C.U.S. committee is open to all students at Western who are genuinely interested in both the present and future status of Canadian University students.

WORLD UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF CANADA

W.U.S.C., one of the branches of the External Affairs Commission of the U.S.C., is an international organization with international offices in Geneva. W.U.S. links universities and university students and professors through mutual assistance, international education, and scholarships and research. The objectives of W.U.S.C. are designed to develop inter-university contacts, and world-wide co-operation and understanding among university people.

W.U.S.C. projects on the Western campus this year have included Treasure Van, SHARE, and the Film Society. Treasure Van is a display and sale of handicrafts from some ten countries. It provides funds for international relief programs of W.U.S., and promotes trade with countries rich in handicraft and skills at the same time bringing to Canadians the beauty of arts and crafts of other countries.

SHARE is a campaign for funds which gives each student an opportunity to help less fortunate student university groups. The "self-help" idea is encouraged, international funds being used only to supplement national efforts. This year's SHARE proceeds were directed towards Vietnam.

The Film Society has just completed its second season at Western. It hopes to present to Western students some of the best movies made, particularly of an international character. "Kind Hearts and Coronets," "Citizen Kane," "Alexander Nevsky" and "Open City" were shown. It is hoped that next year speakers and perhaps discussions after the films can be added to the program.

Each summer a student from Western is sent abroad by W.U.S.C. to take part in a seminar and study tour. Last summer Pat Griffin travelled to the Gold Coast of Africa for the W.U.S.C. Seminar. In 1958 the Seminar will be held in Yugoslavia. W.U.S. also sponsors scholarships for students living where there are limited or no facilities for study. W.U.S. is primarily interested in educational projects because it believes that the most powerful weapon against poverty, disease and despair among the vast populations of Asia, the Middle East and Africa is educated leadership.

W.U.S.C. urges all students and faculty to actively participate in its program of action on this campus.

Arrival of Canadian and American Delegations in Nigeria. Lagos — Capital of Country

W. U. S. C. SEMINAR

Eight years ago, the Canadian Committee of World University Service sponsored a summer seminar for Canadian students in Germany. Each year since then, the Seminar has been held. India, Japan, Spain and Greece have each been host to the Canadian students. Last summer, Africa, Ghana and Nigeria in particular, was the site chosen.

Thirty-five Canadian students representing twenty-two universities met in New York and flew to London, England. After a week's orientation in the mother country we were off to see the newest member of the Commonwealth, Ghana, and soon-to-be independent Nigeria. As a group we visited the University College of Ibadan in Nigeria for a week. The students, although writing final exams, found time to answer our many questions and show us their beautiful, modern campus. From Ibadan we split up into six smaller groups and travelled with student guides. By plane, jeep, canoe and ferryboat we travelled to the eastern section of Nigeria almost as far as the Cameroons. Schools, market places, government offices, a funeral, native dancing, local industry, farms, mines, nothing was left undone by our eager group.

Having gained a personal insight into the culture, we rejoined the rest of the Canadian delegation in Ghana. At the University of Ghana, not far from the capital, Accra, we met students and professors from every university in Africa as well as representatives from Israel, Egypt, England, Sweden, Germany and France. For three weeks we studied, ate, danced, talked over endless cups of tea, and, in general, got as much from one another as we could. The pictures on this page are all candid shots taken during the three weeks at the Seminar.

The experience cannot be evaluated too highly. It is so easy to forget at times that we are not the only country with problems and interests so acute. My best wishes to the Western Participant, ———————— in the 1959 Seminar in Yugoslavia. May all of Western profit by the study, travel and mutual exchange with Yugoslavian students that he (or she) will experience this summer.

UNDERGRADUATE WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION

The council represents all undergraduate women students registered who, after paying an initial fee of one dollar, are members of the organization. The money is distributed among the various activities satisfying the needs of women students on campus.

Members of the council include the Dean of Women, the Sub-Prefect, the Brescia House President, and three representatives from each year.

Among the activities of the council is the sponsoring of the Freshette Luncheon during Frosh Week, and the Co-Ed Ball.

This year's projects to raise money included selling Western scarves, Christmas cards, and redecorating the Women's Lounge in the Arts Building.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The Women's Athletic Committee is an elected student body organized to promote athletics among women students of the University. The Committee is composed of an Executive as below, a representative from each sport sponsored by the Committee, and a representative from each faculty participating. These groups are Arts, Honour Arts, Brescia Hall, Science and Nursing. Under these representatives, a competition in each sport is carried out and the points submitted toward the Laing Trophy, awarded to the winning faculty. The Honorary President is Dr. Neal, and the women assistants in the Department of Physical Education act as ex-officio members without voting powers.

CIRCLE "K" CLUB

Circle K is a service organization sponsored as an integral part of Kiwanis International. In 1955, the 150 Circle K Clubs in Canada and the United States received official recognition by Kiwanis. An international charter was granted and permanent headquarters were established in Chicago, Illinois.

The Western club was the first one in Canada and the second on the North American continent. The club is similar to Kiwanis, only at the college level. It is a character-building group which offers services on the campus to both the school and the community.

The year 1957-58 was very successful for the Western club. As in previous years, the club's chief source of revenue for projects was from selling football programs at all home games. Part of the proceeds were used to provide a bursary for a deserving student at the University. This was presented in the spring term, as has been the policy for the past seven years.

The Circle K Club decorated the cafeteria to add to the Christmas spirit on the campus. Once again this year, the annual project of cleaning the trophies in Thames Hall was performed. In answer to many student requests, a non-profit dance was held after a basketball game in January. The club hopes that this will be a start to encourage other campus clubs to sponsor similar dances.

The club holds bi-monthly meetings in the banquet room of Somerville House. The sponsoring Kiwanis Club sends two representatives to each meeting and each week Circle K sends two members to the Monday luncheon of the Forest City Kiwanis Club.

The club will be sending a delegate to the International convention to be held in Tulsa. Oklahoma, in August. A very successful Canadian Circle K Conference was held here at Western on November 17.

THE MATHEMATICAL SOCIETY

The Math Club provides a chance once a month for the faculty and students to come together for an informal talk and social evening.

The meetings consist of lectures of a popular or semi-technical nature, films, mathematical problems, observations of the sky through the telescope, and a social hour. All students interested in mathematics are invited to attend the monthly meetings held in the Hume Cronyn Observatory.

CHEMICAL INSTITUTE OF CANADA

The organization on the campus represents one small section of the national organization destined to further the interests of Chemists and Chemical Engineers. The parent organization has a membership of approximately four thousand.

The organization tends to promote interest in the science of chemistry. It attempts to develop a closer union among its members, as well as foster a just pride in the science in which the members have chosen to make a career.

Speakers and films at the monthly meetings give the students an idea of the "workings" of Chemistry in industry.

The more material advantages consist largely in scholarships, assistance in obtaining employment, and a free subscription to the national journal "Chemistry in Canada."

Membership is open to students registered in Honours Chemistry or Honours Chemistry and Physics.

The 1957-58 executive officers of the student section are:

President - - - - - - - - - Robert Robotham
Vice-President - - - - - - - - - Ron Buchanan
Treasurer - - - - - - - - - Robert Thompson

SCIENCE WOMEN'S COLLOQUIUM

This organization's aim is to promote a closer relationship among girls of the Science faculty in academic and social life, and to facilitate discussion leading to a deeper understanding of the field of Arts. Science and Medicine. Monthly meetings take the form of suppers, forums and parties. All girls registered in Honour Science and B.Sc.N. courses are eligible for membership.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The Psychology Club proved to be one of the most popular clubs on campus this year. On the third Tuesday of each month a large membership, consisting of students from nearly every faculty, gathered in the MacIntosh Building's Lower Gallery to enjoy a variety of programs designed to appeal to everyone interested in people, their problems and relations.

Panel discussions between professors and students, films on such thought-provoking topics as Alcoholism, and guest speakers, featured the programs. New friendships were made and old ones renewed after each meeting, as members enjoyed the refreshments.

The highlight of the Club Year was the Western-Varsity Weekend in which the clubs became acquainted and joined together in learning more about this ever broadening field. A club banquet concluded a very prosperous and interesting year.

This year's executive hope that the Club will continue to function and grow, and that the goal of stimulating interest in Psychology with informality plus, will be carried out even more successfully in the coming year.

POLYCON CLUB

The Polycon Club (Politics-Economics) is open to all students interested in current political and economic affairs and in their discussion and debate. A particular welcome is extended to first-year students, who might find the study of economics and political science interesting and vital in today's world. Discussions are held monthly on national and international topics. A banquet, with an outstanding Canadian or American speaker, ends the year's activities.

P.H.R.E. CLUB

The P.H.R.E. Association was formed in the Fall of 1950 as a grouping of all Physical Education students for the purpose of furthering the courses of Physical Education, help freshmen in their choice of courses, and provide social atmosphere and recreation.

A typical meeting consists of a short discussion of business, followed by some form of activity such as badminton, volleyball, swimming or square dancing. Usually a speaker is present who tells of newer trends in the field of Physical Education. Meetings are held once a month.

A new venture for our club members this year was an ice-hockey seminar for both girls and boys under Mr. W. J. L'Heureux which proved a profitable and enjoyable way to spend our January meeting. At an earlier meeting, a very stimulating discussion directed by local high school teachers proved invaluable as an insight into the problems of coaching a high school team.

This year we are planning a project which should be of interest to not only the P.H.R.E. members but members of the whole student body, namely, a fantastically true-to-life demonstration of an accident victim along with instruction in the correct way to render him first aid. This is through the courtesy of the Red Cross Society.

Each year a new executive is elected in the spring. The 1957-1958 executive consisted of:

President - - - - - - - - - - Lyn McLaren
Vice-President - - - - - - - - Shirley Moser
Secretary - - - - - - - - - - - Pat Osborn
Treasurer - - - - - - - - - Dave Langhorne

Fluttering fans and colourful costumes brought a real Japanese atmosphere to the stage of Con Hall in February as the Gilbert and Sullivan Society launched their production of "The Mikado." This is one of the liveliest and best known of all the Gilbert and Sullivan musical comedies.

The town of Titipu was full of interesting characters—from the Lord High Executioner to the son of the Mikado, dressed as a wandering minstrel, and, of course, the Three Little Maids from School, Yum-Yum. Pitti-Sing and Peep-Bo.

REHEARSAL TIME

At the Guild's first meeting in the fall. the following executive was elected:

President - - - - - - - - - SANDRA PIRIE
Vice-President - - - - - - - ROD DURNIN
Secretary - - - - - - - - LARRY SHIPLEY
Business Manager - - - - - - LANNY STAPLES
Publicity Director - - - - - - - JIM BROWN

The first major undertaking of the Guild was the revival of the Inter-Year Drama Festival. This was a competition among the first. second and senior years for the Colonel Whare trophy. The first-year play, "Taranne," was directed by Dr. Stratford; the second-year play, "Rossum's Universal Robots," by Dr. Havelka: and the senior play, "Still Stands the House," by Mr. MacDonald. This gave an unusual international flavour to the evening. as France. Czechoslovakia and Canada were represented by these selections. The adjudicator. Mr. Martin O'Meara of the London Little Theatre. awarded the trophy to the seniors.

On March 6. 7 and 8. the Guild presented Ben Jonson's "The Alchemist." Many members of the cast had also appeared in the Festival in December. This play, described by the Gazette as a "feelthy farce," provided an exceptionally good opportunity for the actors to try their hand at all types of comedy. from witty and sophisticated word-play to the broadest slap-stick. and to perform before a particularly appreciative audience.

The remainder of the year was spent in finishing up business and laying plans to make campus theatre work in 58/59 even more active and stimulating.

Concert Manager - - - - - - - - Joseph Wearing
Stage Manager - - - - - - - - - David Marsden

The Sunday 9 O'Clock Committee is composed of students from University College, School of Business Administration, Medical School, School of Nursing, Music Teachers' College, Brescia Hall, Huron College and Christ the King College. Interested students apply to Minister of Cultural Activities for a position on the committee. Selection is made by a joint meeting of the committee of the particular year and the Minister of Cultural Activities. Once chosen and approved by the U.S.C., the chairman is appointed; the other officers are elected.

The aims of the committee are:

(1) To promote and encourage a cultural interest in music among Western students.

(2) To introduce and encourage Canadian musical artists.

The committee is under the jurisdiction of the U.S.C. and as such it receives a grant from the Minister of Finance (the sum of one dollar from the fees of every student). This money, in addition to door collection, is used to finance all concerts.

This year the Sunday 9 O'Clock Committee presented a variety of outstanding Canadian talent in the names of Ron Collier Jazz Quintet (classical jazz artists), the University Choir, students from the Music Teachers' College accompanied by the London Civic Symphony (pianists), Roy Dudley (pianist), and Lois Marshall (soloist—soprano).

All the concerts are open to the public as well as to the students and everyone may attend the informal reception which is held after each concert.

The purpose of the Westminster Club is to promote a closer relationship among Presbyterian students on the campus and to encourage study and discussion of basic Christian faith. To help carry out this aim, it sponsors a monthly breakfast meeting with a guest speaker. One of our speakers was Rev. Kenneth McMillan, the secretary of the British and Foreign Bible Society. In addition, discussion groups and social events are held, such as a bowling party, a Hallowe'en party for the orphans, and a Christmas carolling service.

PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE CLUB

The Conservative Club, under the leadership of Stuart Ellis, has had a good year on the campus. The Conservatives for the first time in several years won an absolute majority over the other parties at the polls for Mock Parliament and they were successful in passing their liquor bill at the session of December 11th, 1957.

In the fall the campus club attended a Conservative Convention in Toronto and succeeded in electing Taylor Gordon as a Vice-President for the Ontario Y.P.C. organization, the only university club to do so.

Although hampered by the fact that the precarious position of the Government at Ottawa has prevented federal speakers from coming to Western this term, the club has had two local speakers, and in all probability will have more in the new year. Another Mock Parliament and a convention in Ottawa are also on the order sheet.

LIBERAL CLUB

The U.W.O. Liberal Association, with its augmented membership, has been enjoying a stimulating year, particularly during this period of concern as another great chapter in Canadian political history unfolds.

Monthly meetings have been addressed by members of the faculty, speakers from the London Liberal Association, as well as prominent politicians, such as Mr. Walter Harris. We anticipate an address to the student body by Mr. Paul Martin in the spring term.

The various political clubs have succeeded in revising the university rulings governing campaigning prior to student elections, and therefore we are planning for a much more active campaign for the February Student Election and thereby stir up greater enthusiasm in the Student Model Parliament which will follow the election.

Nine Western students were privileged to attend the Canadian University Liberal Convention and the National Leadership Convention during the week of January 13th in Ottawa. We hope some of our members will be attending the provincial Liberal Convention in April in Toronto. Functions such as these, in addition to the benefits derived from group discussions at meetings, enable students to voice their views and form opinions in an effort to gain a knowledge of Canada's domestic and international problems.

We believe our organization fulfills a great purpose in broadening students' outlook from an economic and political viewpoint, and we hope to continue exerting a favourable influence in this way. The Annual Banquet of the Liberal Association, with Paul Hellyer as guest speaker, brought the college year to a close.

SKIING CLUB

Doug Bradford, President; Sandy Traver, Secretary; John Hethrington, Vice-President.

A strong advertising campaign and the first snowfall of the season drew over 60 ski enthusiasts to Thames Hall for the first meeting of the U.W.O. Ski Club early in December. Movies of Alpine ski holidays, and the fabulous Ernie McCullough in action, plus promises of snow (not fulfilled) by the president, further whetted the appetite of the attending skiers and a record membership was established.

The acting officers, consisting of President Doug Bradford, Vice-President John Hethrington, Treasurer Pete Grundy, and Secretary Sandy Traver, won a vote of confidence to hold office for the year.

John Hethrington called for skiers interested in racing. It was hoped that an intercollegiate team might be formed, and plans were made for the team to get some practice competition at Flesherton, Osler Bluffs and Blue Mountain. The meet at Flesherton was open to all club members whether they had racing experience or not and was held in conjunction with the O.A.C. Ski Club for the purpose of encouraging competitive skiing among Ontario Universities.

The annual ski-nanigans week-end at Collingwood, for the pleasure skiers and skiers at heart, was greatly enjoyed by all who attended.

Most local skiing was done at the London Ski Club property at Byron, where the ski tows operate two nights each week and on the week-ends. The Ski Club also has exclusive rights to the hill behind the Science Building.

CURLING CLUB

Ken Watson (Sec.-Treasurer), Walt Thompson (President). Dick Gardner (Games Captain), Charles Cambrian and C. L. Kimball (Vice-Presidents).

Curling as an interfaculty activity flourished this year. Many close and exciting matches were played under the capable direction of Games Captain Dick Gardner.

Outstanding teams from the faculties of Business Administration and Science, respectively skipped by Charlie Kimball and Tom Collings, dominated the fierce battles for the top spot in the standings. Much fine curling was demonstrated to the many interested spectators, and the staid halls of the London Curling Club resounded to the cries of "Good heavens, old chap, sweep," as stalwart young intelligentsia gracefully guided the granites to their intended destination.

A wonderful season was enjoyed by all, and much credit is due the very active executive, ably led by President Walter Thompson. In all, 22 teams, representing all faculties, competed for the Michael Yuhazs Memorial Trophy, emblematic of curling supremacy at Western.

THE HESPERIAN CLUB

The purpose of the Hesperian Club is to allow all those who are interested in English literature and its various fields to meet informally and discuss, without course restriction, their particular interests in English.

The 1957-58 Hesperian Club was one of the most active groups in recent years. Ten meetings. four of which were Creative Writing Nights, were held.

Short stories, poems and chapters of novels were submitted by the members and read and discussed at the Creative Writing Nights. A Short Story Contest was held in January, and lyrics were prepared for a Music School program. Dr. Bandeen, Dr. Bates and Dr. Reidy spoke to the group at the October meeting on "Opportunities for Graduate Study in Foreign Countries." Mr. Peter Dearing of the L.L.T. considered some "Aspects of Modern Drama" to an enthusiastic audience in November. Highlights of our Christmas party were an original Christmas play by John Mulder, an academic Santa Claus presented by Dr. Reidy, the appearance of the Seven Deadly Sins by the graduate students, and square dancing. Mr. Collin gave an interesting lecture on "Modern French-Canadian Literature" in January, and Dr. Wallace Ferguson broadened our knowledge of "English Renaissance Music" in February. The Hesperian Club year was brought to a successful conclusion when Dr. Northrup Frye spoke at the annual banquet before a large group of interested members.

UNITED CHURCH OF CANADA CLUB

The United Church of Canada Club is a newcomer to our campus and was organized to supply fellowship and Church affiliation to interested students

The Club is now well established and has a membership of approximately 100 students.

It meets bi-monthly, the one gathering for speakers and programs of general interest, the other taking the form of a supper meeting and worship service shared with one of the London churches.

It is the aim of the Club that students may find in its activities a strengthening and enriching fellowship to the end "that all may be one" in Christ.

EL CIRCULO HISPANICO

The purpose of Western's Spanish Club is to foster interest in the Spanish language and people. Monthly meetings are held and various aspects of Spanish culture are featured. Highlights of the Spanish Club program for this year were a wiener roast held at Fanshawe, a Spanish "Fiesta," and the annual Christmas party.

Le Cercle Francais is designed to further interest in the French language and culture, and, as far as possible, to give members an opportunity of speaking French in an informal atmosphere.

Five meetings were held this year. The opening rally took the form of a wiener roast at Fanshawe Park. In a short business meeting elections were held to complete the executive. Several games were played and the entertainment ended by singing French songs around the fireplace. The second meeting was held at the University with about forty members present.

A Christmas party was held at the home of Dr. Torrens, where the Swiss ambassador, Dr. Victor Nef, spoke to the Club about Swiss Christmas customs. The highlight of the lunch was the traditional Creche de Noel, specially prepared for the Club by Mrs. Torrens.

Two meetings were held after Christmas. The first was at Brescia Hall, where Dr. Montgomery spoke on some aspects of French art. Elections for next year's executive were held at this meeting. The annual banquet was held in March with a large and enthusiastic crowd present.

INSTITUTE OF RADIO ENGINEERS

The student section of the I.R.E. has undertaken a variety of programs during the school year of 1957-58. Chief among these are monthly meetings where speakers are invited to give talks to the members. followed by a question period.

Another phase of the program includes field trips to various industries and government installations where the members are able to see the theory of their lectures in practice.

Another activity of the student section is the purchasing of subscriptions to periodicals of a technical nature, which are kept in the Science Reading Room for the rest of the student body. This serves to augment the library periodicals, as well as to provide the students who are interested in communication and radio, the opportunity to keep abreast of the latest developments in this field.

THE CLIO CLUB

The Clio Club, named after the Greek Muse of History, is the organization of History students on the campus. Meetings are held four or five times each year. The club's purpose is to promote interest in History by providing the opportunity of listening to informed and stimulating speakers.

In the autumn, Dr. W. K. Ferguson initiated the year's activities by speaking on the "Philosophy of History." Several informal meetings were held to encourage student panel discussions. Following these meetings, refreshments were served. A banquet was held in February.

The Clio Club executive for 1957-58 was as follows:

The purpose of the Home Economics Club is to increase the student's knowledge in the fields of textiles, nutrition, interior decorating, institutional management, and dietetics. This is achieved by having various guest speakers, films, and discussions throughout the school year.

At the October meeting we were very fortunate in having as our guest speaker Mr. R. Postian, who is well known for his k..owledge of both oriental rugs and broadloom carpets.

Miss Betty Lou Wakeam, a former graduate of Western and now assistant fashion editor for "The London Free Press," discussed the opportunities for Home Economics graduates in the fashion world of to-day. Miss Renata Kursell, dietitian at Victoria Hospital, London, and also a former graduate, delivered a very inspiring speech explaining the full-time duties of the hospital dietitian. She also reviewed the necessary interneship requirement for such a position.

Thanks to the generosity of the U.S.C., the graduating class was able to visit the interior decoration department of Eaton's College Street Store in Toronto, where they studied the various periods of furniture.

We are grateful to the Principal and staff for their kindness to us each year.

At the March meeting, the executive of the club for 1958-59 was elected, and an informal evening of discussion and films followed. A Spring Festival was presented in April, where the girls displayed their work in art, interior decorating, textiles, and nutrition, followed by a social evening, to bring to a close a successful year.

GEOGRAPHY CLUB

The world is the environment of man. To understand the significance of the forces that rule and modify that environment is the study of geography. For those students with a special interest in this most interesting subject the University Geography Club provides practical experience in examining various aspects of the geography of Southern Ontario. These activities vary from town surveys to week-long field trips and long-term studies of erosion problems along the shore of Lake Erie.

The Club holds several informative meetings with interesting guests, as well as a banquet and several parties during the school year. Since geography encompasses and correlates a rather broad and diverse field of subjects, it is both controversial and dynamic. In the Geography Club, members find a more intimate knowledge of these qualities.

DEBATING CLUB

The U.W.O. Debating Society sent four debaters to the Pittsburgh Cross-examination in December, 1957. Our team placed 33rd in the final standings. The club also sent debaters to the University of Toronto Tournament in January, 1958, and it competed in the Intercollegiate debates.

February 28 and March 1, 1958, the society held the first U.W.O. Debating Tournament for some years. This tournament, like many of our activities, is sponsored by the Weldon Fund for the improvement of public speech on the campus. They invited other Canadian and American universities to compete.

In addition, Inter-year debates for MacIntosh prize money, and Inter-faculty debates were held, as well as Student-Faculty debate.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is open to anyone interested in any field of science. Students in courses other than science are invited to join and see how the other half of the world lives. The bulk of the club is made up of science students, who keep it running smoothly.

Meetings are held once a month on a week-night. Talks by doctors, chemists, physicists, geologists and biologists make up a year's agenda.

After every meeting there is dancing, games and refreshments.

Highlights of the year are a Demonstration Night, Christmas Sleigh Ride Party, and a final Banquet.

WESTERN CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

Western Christian Fellowship is one of the many I.V.C.F. groups found on campuses across Canada.

A wiener roast, at which the Frosh were welcomed, started our year's activities. Socials provided fun and recreation for our members.

Missionary teas were held monthly, with guest speakers representing many countries.

In our weekly Bible studies, conducted by members of the group, we studied the Parables of Christ. At our speaker meetings emphasis was placed on practical Christianity.

During the Christmas holidays nine members attended the I.V.C.F. Fifth International Missionary Convention at the University of Illinois.

The culmination of our year's activities was the annual banquet held in Somerville House. Everyone present enjoyed this evening of fellowship, a fitting close to another good year.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

The Student Christian Movement is a fellowship of students who believe that in Jesus Christ are found the supreme revelation of God and the means to the full realization of life. The S.C.M. in Canadian Universities is recognized and strengthened by its affiliation with the Canadian Council of Churches and the World Student Christian Federation.

This year's program has been designed to challenge students by its timely and stimulating nature. Activities have included a study group on the current problems of South-east Asia, a weekly Bible study group and a weekly worship service. A panel discussion on "Science and the Christian Faith in an Atomic Age" aroused considerable interest and featured four university professors and the well-known Dr. Soper from England.

The Sunday evening firesides were probably the greatest success. University professors usually led the discussions, and the topics ranged from "Love" to "Karl Bart and the Bible."

This year the S.C.M. at Western successfully produced the magazine for the S.C.M. of Canada, "Cross-Fire," for which they can be justly proud.

University of Western Ontario Choir

U.W.O. CHOIR

The University Choir this year enjoyed a most successful season. Under the direction of Professor Rose, the members of the choir combined their talents to present a variety of music in their annual concert held on December 15. Highlights in the program were works by Elgar and Sibelius with a few traditional Christmas carols ending the concert. The concert was a tremendous success and one that will be remembered in years to come.

As is traditional the choir took part in the Tenth Inter-Varsity Choral Festival, this year held at O.A.C.-O.V.C. Mac Institute in Guelph. As usual the Western Choir gave an outstanding performance, participating with choirs from University of Toronto, McMaster and O.A.C.-O.V.C. Mac Institute.

A Get-together Party, a Toboggan Party and a banquet and election of officers for the new year's Executive rounded out the social side of the organization.

The Newman Club is a member of the Canadian Federation of Newman Clubs as well as Pax Romana, which is the International Organization of Catholic Students. To Roman Catholic students on this, a secular campus, the Newman Club offers spiritual, intellectual, cultural and social benefits invaluable to college life. Discussion groups, lectures and other activities such as the annual Newman Ball are among the club's activities. Open House is held every Sunday evening at Newman House, 76 Albert Street. Communion Breakfasts are held regularly. All Catholic students and friends are cordially invited to the Newman functions.

HILLEL CLUB

The purpose of the B'nai B'rith Hillel organization is to provide Jewish students with facilities, guidance and organization for the expression of their common religious, cultural and social interests; and to provide facilities so that an adequate program of educational, social and inter-faith work may be carried out on the campus.

Canterbury is for all students interested in the life and teachings of the Anglican Church, and its purpose is to apply Christianity to campus life. This is done by having speakers at both a Communion breakfast and an Evensong discussion every month.

Hayrides, parties and dances make up the social side of Canterbury. This year the Canterbury Club sponsored the Christmas Lit for the first time. The annual banquet and dance was held at St. John's, Arva, and the big event of the year — the Canterbury Ball — was at the Hunt Club.

The Very Reverend R. C. Brown, Dean of Huron and Rector of St. Paul's Cathedral, is chaplain of the club. Both the Cathedral and Huron College are used for the club's activities.

Canterbury Club at Western is a member of the National Canterbury Association and sent representatives to the National Convention, which was held this year at the University of New Brunswick.

This year, Canterbury has attempted something entirely new for the annual project. It is called "Operation Keewatin." Eight volunteer students plan to spend the summer at Big Beaver House, 250 miles north of Sioux Lookout in the diocese of Keewatin. There they will work on the construction of a church for the Indians.

Canterbury has been a strong, active club this year, and hopes to continue to be so in future years.

LUTHERAN CLUB

The Lutheran Students' Association at Western, along with other groups at Waterloo, Toronto, Queen's and McGill, forms the Eastern Canada Region of the Lutheran Students' Association of America.

The purpose of the L.S.A. is to promote closer relationship among Lutheran students, to encourage worship and the study of basic Christian faith and its relation to cultural, social and ethical problems.

The L.S.A. opened and closed the year with a banquet and during the intervening period of time had discussions headed by guest speakers, provided orphans with a Christmas party, and held a showing of the film "Martin Luther."

Up she goes!

A terrific group

Guess who?

Don't believe them!

Confusion reigned on registration day as this year's freshmen class, in badges, beanies and other regalia tried to find their way around the campus. They found this even harder since the upperclassmen, determined to make the Frosh suffer, were of little help. Strange renditions of Western, Western, Western U filled the air, dead horses were popular and cars were cleaner than they'll ever be.

The formal orientation program began for Freshettes Wednesday noon with a luncheon sponsored by the Undergraduate Women's Organization. All Frosh were welcomed that night by President Hall and representatives of the faculty and student government in a program in Thames Hall, followed by a dance.

FROSH WEEK

Campus life was outlined to the Frosh by the Deans of men and women on Thursday morning. That night the cruel sophs made the Frosh run across the golf course and back along Western Road to Thames Hall for the Meds' Show, which, true to form, had everyone desperately studying the floor in an attempt to hide their embarrassment.

A snake dance along downtown sidewalks — London traffic has become too heavy to use the street — a theatre party and a dance at the Catholic Culture Centre highlighted Friday's activities.

Saturday afternoon saw the first football game of the season with Western meeting the University of British Columbia in an exhibition game. The whole student body celebrated our win at the Welcome Home Dance that night. Sunday night, Frosh met at First-St. Andrew's Church for an interdenominational service.

Lectures began Monday, but that didn't get anyone down. They were all, upperclassmen, too, looking forward to Friday night and the Frosh Hop with the traditional Ride to Port Stanley by the L. & P.S., and the decapping ceremony.

Minus their caps and badges, the Frosh were no longer set apart, but were now full-fledged members of Western's student body.

Oh! those legs!

HOMECOMING

"Welcome Alumni" was the warm greeting that met the large crowd of grads as they streamed into London for a week-end full of fun and memories.

The festivities began on Friday evening with the annual variety show presented by some of our most talented grads. Paul Soles as the master of ceremonics introduced some terrific dance and song routines and kept spirits high with his humour in between the numbers. The chorus line was wonderful per usual, and Barbara Janes did a very good imitation of Mr. Pastry. Mike Weir with his well loved accordion brought back many memories of the fraternities where he used to sing. The Mustang Band and Cheerleaders took over after the show and so created an even stronger school spirit for the alums.

Early Saturday morning, more than twenty-five colourful floats from organizations and clubs of Western toured through the streets of London, led by the Band and Cheerleaders.

Following the parade, crowds adjourned to Little Memorial Stadium. Here high hopes were fulfilled when the Mustangs played an exciting and successful game against the Toronto Blues. This victory was to prove a perfect example of the team's good playing which led them on to the eventual capture of the Yates Cup.

The floats were judged at the game, with the first prize going to Spencer Hall, who depicted a colourful fall scene. Needles to say, current events were very popular, with the 'flu bug and Sputnik finding their way into the theme of the floats.

The Roam-Around Dance on Saturday night was the ending of a perfect week-end. Thames Hall featured Glenn Bricklin, in Convocation Hall Norm Lindsay led the Country Hoedown, and to complete the variety, the College Cabaret was "real cool" in the Co-Ed Lounge.

Sunday morning dawned bright and sunny, but most of the Alums were found in bed sleeping off the effects of one of the best Homecoming Week-ends ever!

Here comes the band

PURPLE PATCHES

1958

"U Can Take It With You"

Purple Patches this year produced a show which, with the exception of the director and choreographer, was entirely the work of Western students. The keynote of the show, the music, was composed by Marlene Love, Dave Marsden, and Don Hassard, who was also the musical director, with additional music by Garth Hudson and Russ McRae. The lyrics were written by the author of the show, Herb Bryce. Additional lyrics were written by Russ McRae.

The name of the show was "U Can Take It With You." The theme was faith in life and was told by presenting two kinds of love. One kind was young, enthusiastic love, represented by Nathan (Rod Brown) and Bobbi (Mary-ann Burgard), who were known together as Nabob. The opposite kind was represented by Judy Stone (Phyllis Aver) and Professor Stanley Arbuckle (Paul Olscamp). This latter kind of love was a cautious love by people who feared it.

The point of the story was that the professor had a suppressed faith in life, which Judy expressed and Nabob unconsciously lived. He finally realized this and began to live by this faith only after Judy had died.

Part of love is jealousy, and this phase was presented through Mike (Roy Butler). However, this problem was soon resolved and Mike falls out of love with Judy and into love with Sally (Carol May).

Comics in the show were Nellie (Sheila Bowyer) and Iggie (Merv Burgard). Another comic was Peahead (Dave Raham).

Choreography was, of course, by Bernice Harper, her eleventh year with Patches.

Direction was in the hands of Miss Joan White, a native of England now living in Toronto. It was her first year with Patches.

Business management was under the direction of Bob Beam. He had full charge of that department, which was a departure from previous years.

CO-ED BALL

Western's annual turnabout dance, the Co-Ed Ball, was held on November 29 for the first time in Thames Hall. This semi-formal dance is sponsored by the Undergraduate Women's Organization under the valued guidance and patronage of Dr. Leola Neal, our Dean of Women.

Thames Hall was appropriately decorated for the theme, Island in the Sun, with giant bongo drums (courtesy of Labatt's), suns, and tropical flowers and birds in cages (Simpson's of London).

Bobby Downs and his band members, in boaters and straw hats, played typical numbers to go along with the theme, and Dr. Neal, Dr. Mary Wright and Dr. Battle shook 700 hands.

Although the fireproofing and decorating took place in the midst of a basketball practice, the members of the organization all managed to look like unruffled hostesses by 9 p.m., and the Co-Ed Ball was successful again.

Frosh Sweetheart

... Carole Anne Coutts

On Friday, November 22, the second sweetheart of the Freshman class was announced. Two years ago a similar dance had been held, with Ann Walker chosen the first Frosh Queen, but it was not until this year that the exciting event was renewed.

The dance was held in Thames Hall and the couples danced to the music of Bobby Downs. Dave McKinley, president of the freshman class, acted as the master of ceremonies and at about eleven o'clock he performed the exciting task of announcing the freshman sweetheart. She was lovely Carole Anne Coutts of Toronto. Stu Klein crowned Carole Anne and presented her with a dozen red roses.

Carole Anne was chosen by her freshman class from among four other candidates — Anna Rush, London; Edna Markham, Newmarket; Susan Soanes, Waterloo; and Elizabeth Wallace, Hamilton.

Credit for this successful dance goes to Dave McKinley and the '61 executive.

U. C. BALL

Dr. Stiling and Queen Ann

A wonderful dance band!

The U.C. Ball was held on January 31 in Thames Hall, where students danced to the music of Sam Donohue. For months beforehand the committee had been planning for this social event of the year that includes students in all faculties at the University.

Before the dance a cocktail party was held at Beta Theta Pi Fraternity for the Committee, the Queen Candidates and patrons. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Entering Thames Hall under the marquee set the atmosphere of elegance for the evening. The gymnasium was transformed into an oriental vision. Along the three walls were large murals in black and red with Chinese lanterns that created the mood for this paradise. The bandstand was a summer teahouse, and the throne a large pagoda surrounded by fern plants. The sitting-out rooms were metamorphosised into oriental gardens and cafes. Many souvenirs for the girls were provided with the numerous lanterns that hung from the ceilings in all rooms.

At eleven fifteen the procession of princesses, with Dr. Stiling and Carolyn Currie (last year's queen) in the lead, entered the ballroom, and Doug Hammar, prefect, presented each with a sterling silver bracelet as they took their places on the throne. Jerry Bascombe was there from CKSL describing the girls to the audience as each entered. As the fanfare rolled out from Glen Bricklin's orchestra, tension increased as suspense gripped everyone. Dr. Stiling read his sealed envelope and announced Ann Walker as the Queen of the Ball. Queen Ann ascended to her throne and was crowned by Dr. Stiling and Carolyn Currie. Queen Ann was then presented with gifts from various faculties of the University. "On with the dance" — Ann's first command — brought the music for students, who danced dreamily to Sam Donohue's orchestra until 1.30. So ended another U.C. Ball.

MEDS

What are they saying?

Real concentration!

In the southern end of the city there is a red brick building. To the students who pass through its doorways it is known fondly as the "South End." To the administration it is known as the Medical School of the University of Western Ontario. The bricks which build it are not made of clay, they are made of men and women. The cement which holds them together is an etherial substance, the communal effort of medicine.

This effort is found everywhere. The Anatomy labs, the Biochemistry and Physiology labs, the lectures, the clinics. But try to define it. One cannot. It is the particles which make the whole, and the particles can be defined.

One is the cafeteria, where we suffer through our lunches together. One is the common room, where there is card playing, bull sessions, chess playing, bull sessions, sleeping, and more bull sessions.

Another is the auditorium, where a wide and diversified field is witnessed. From the comedy of tachycardia to the seriousness of C.A.M.S.I. forums.

Another is the gymnasium, where the creaks of unused joints, the grunts and groans of unused bodies are heard. Here the rivalry amongst the years is settled.

Other particles are the word clinics, the medical, surgical, and neurology rounds; the "visit" with the O.B. department; the darkened depths of Dr. Fisher's office; the nurses' residence; the meeting of the 5-3 Club at Paddy's Place.

These are the particles which compose the whole. These are the particles which produce the communal effort of medicine. These are the particles which are known as "the South End."

THE BUSINESS SCHOOL

Business Council meets Meds' Council

Although many do not realize it, the Business School is made up of more than three-button suits and briefcases packed with case material. As Huron and the Artsmen well know, Business can carry the pigskin as well as the cowhide. For the first time in its history, Business won the Interfaculty Sports. The training camp for these athletes is in the lower corridor, where the sheep are separated from the goats at the ping-pong table.

For the less athletically inclined there are many other activities in which they can take part. The most important of these is the Job Placement Program. No other university in Canada enjoys the student participation as Western's Business School does in this respect. So that their short stay at Western may run as smoothly as possible, representatives from each firm are cared for by a student host. This is greatly appreciated by the visiting companies.

So that students can gain a more thorough knowledge of the phase of business they expect to enter, a Job Clinic is undertaken in the fall. Here, representatives of the various aspects of business endeavour to enlighten the students in their respective fields. Here again, the responsibility of organization is left to the students.

Business students will forever be curious of problems of business. There are two organizations in the Business School which endeavour to satisfy this curiosity. They are the Speakers and Marketing Clubs. Both groups have brought inspiring businessmen to the campus this year and have certainly met their objectives.

These are only some of the various activities in which Business students participate. So the next time you see a three-button suit and a briefcase, follow them. Chances are they will not be off to discuss a case.

ENGINEERING

In its fourth year of representation on the campus of Western, the name of Engineering is familiar to many. The Undergraduate Engineering Society, formed a year ago to represent the interests of the Engineering group, became increasingly effective as an organizer and administrator. Under its auspices a series of supper meetings brought before the Engineering students such speakers as V. A. McKillop, General Manager of London's Public Utilities Commission and Past President of the Engineering Institute of Canada, and C. M. Anson, President of the same organization.

The U.E.S. also sponsored a stag party as a means of getting students of different years together. The idea became so popular that a series of such affairs developed throughout the year.

The boys were active in many other affairs as well. Their entry in the Homecoming Parade, including a rather unco-operative horse (see picture next page), was a float of great ingenuity. The arrival of a wind tunnel in the Engineering Department's cells on the basement floor of Thames Hall prompted a lot of activity, and some confusion in the minds of certain co-eds looking for X-rays.

A Christmas party in December was very enjoyable for many Engineers and their friends. January marked the debut of a new social event at Western, the Engineers' Ball. Good music, a Parisienne theme, a goldfishing quartet and a little poetry added up to a lot of fun!

Athletically, the Engineering group maintained a proud record for the year. Representatives were found on Intercollegiate football, soccer, golf, swimming and wrestling teams. In Interfaculty competition the Engineers made up a large part of Science representation in many activities. Football, basketball, water polo, table tennis and other sports all felt the impact. Within the group, a challenge and rematch hockey tournament between the second year boys and a select group from third and fourth years provided a fine brand of entertainment. A bowling tournament was also organized among the third year students.

This spring, the first group of graduates will stream from the Department of Engineering Science, ready to face a cruel world. Good luck to them all!

It's making the new school!

FACTS that spell

ABILITY TO SERVE

■ The London Life Insurance Company has over $1,196,000,000 of business in force—more than double the amount of seven years ago.

■ There are now more than 1,235,000 individual London Life policies in effect. This does not include the certificates issued to persons insured under London Life Group Insurance plans; these certificates number well over 450,000.

■ In 1957 the Company issued $578,000,000 of new life insurance. In other words, Canadians are purchasing life insurance from the London Life at the rate of $2,250,000 each working day of the year.

These facts reflect the confidence of the people of Canada in the Company's carefully selected and well trained representatives, and in its ability—proved by its record through the years—to provide life insurance at low cost to its policyholders.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Editorial Board and Staff of the Occidentalia would like to extend their sincere thanks to the following for their generous help and co-operation in producing the 1958 edition of Occidentalia:

— those students who wrote and contributed write-ups and pictures for student organizations and other sections of the book;

— to all students who gave so freely of their time to help sell Oxys;

— Victor Aziz, Bill Barrett, McKittrick's, Ron Nelson, Bill Austin, David Harris and The London Free Press for allowing the Oxy to use many of their photographs;

— to the Gazette for their publicity help;

— to London Printing & Lithographing for their co-operation in helping us to produce the book;

— to all those students who in some way contributed in the publication of this yearbook.
